At the Thirty-second Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 1, 1832.

Hon. and Right Rev. the LORD BISHOP of LICHFIELD and COVENTRY, Vice-Patron, in the Chair.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE CLERICAL SECRETARY,

On a Motion by the Very Rev. the Dean of Salisbury, seconded by the Rev. Professor Scholefield,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, an Abstract of which has been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; and that this Meeting recognises, with thankfulness, the continued goodness of God to the Society during the past year.

On a Motion by the Rev. John William Cunningham, seconded by the Rev. William Jowett, late the Society's Representative in the Mediterranean,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the removal of those Christian Brethren, who have been taken from the service of their Saviour on earth, should be considered as a solemn call to those who survive, diligently to avail themselves of present opportunities, and to be followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

On a Motion by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Calcutta, seconded by the Rev. James Haldane Stewart,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. Edward Bickersteth, for his Sermon preached before the Society last evening; to the President, Vice-Patrons, and Vice-Presidents; and to all those Friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf: and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the year ensuing, with power to fill up vacancies. (See List, after Vice-Presidents.)

On a Motion by the Rev. Charles Simeon, seconded by the Hon. and Rev. Gerard Thomas Noel,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting desires to remind the Members of the Society, that the times in which we live are such as should excite every Member of the Church of Christ earnestly to intercede for the pouring out of the Holy Spirit, that the Church, receiving a full blessing herself, may be made the instrument of an extensive blessing to the world.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by Patrons, Vice-Patrons, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRONS of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection. VICE-PATRONS shall be appointed exclusively from among the Peers, Spiritual and Temporal. The PRESIDENT shall be such Peer or Commoner, and the VICE-PRESIDENTS such Commoners, as may be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upwards, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upwards per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upwards, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upwards shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday, the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the General Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church) a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often; and at such places as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patrons, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered ex-officio Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All Payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued:——The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon his designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

CHURCH MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.

WHEN a disposition appears in any place to assist the designs of the Society by establishing an Association in its support, a Meeting of persons favourable to such a measure should be called. The friends who meet for this purpose should form themselves into a "Church Missionary Association, in aid of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and should proceed to appoint a Committee and proper Officers.

In large Towns, comprehending several Parishes, it may be expedient to appoint a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, and a Secretary; with a pretty numerous Committee, composed of persons from the different Parishes.

In Parochial Associations, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and a smaller Committee, under the Presidency of the Clergyman, may be best suited to conduct the business.

It may sometimes be found expedient to form Associations in Separate Congregations in the same Parish, rather than one Association in the Parish at large; and in this case, also, a Treasurer, Secretary, and Committee, under the Presidency of the Clergyman, will suffice to accomplish the object.

In a Voluntary Union of Friends, whether the members of the same family, the children of a school, or persons connected by affinity or friendship, such arrangements may be made as may prove most convenient to themselves.

In this manner, Benevolent Persons, willing to assist the designs of the Society, from the domestic circle to the largest town, may unite for a purpose most beneficial to their own minds, while it expresses a due regard to the glory of God in the salvation of the Heathen, and a proper sense of their own infinite obligations to Divine Mercy.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS SUITABLE FOR ASSOCIATIONS.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be, all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward, or, if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea; and also such Persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, or, if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per Annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Reports of this Association, and also the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at all their General Meetings; and Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive either a Copy of each Monthly Number of the Church Missionary Record, or the Annual Report of the Parent Society.—Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at all Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society.—Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors.

VI. The business of the Association shall be under the management of a Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, Secretaries, Governors, and a Committee not exceeding ——— Lay Members of the Established Church, and of all Clergymen who are Members of this Association. The Committee to meet on the ——— in the months of January, April, July, and October, at ——— o'clock; Five Members being competent to act.

VII. The object of the Committee shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed Persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society; and to recommend proper Persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary Information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VIII. The whole of the Funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society in aid of its designs.

IX. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day in the month of ——— as shall be found expedient (of which due notice shall be given), when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be presented.

PREACHED AT

ST. CLEMENT DANES, STRAND,

SERMON

PSALM LXVII. 1, 2.

GOD BE MERCIFUL UNTO US, AND BLESS US, AND CAUSE HIS FACE TO SHINE UPON US; THAT THY WAY MAY BE KNOWN UPON EARTH, THY SAVING HEALTH AMONG ALL NATIONS.

NEVER, my Brethren, did I feel the responsibility of my situation to be more solemn and overwhelming than on the present occasion. The prosperity of a Society, with which I was for fifteen years connected as one of its Secretaries, and whose exertions are now widely extended in the earth; the welfare of the Church planted in our land; the peculiarly critical state of our own Country, and of Christendom at large; and the never-dying interests of millions of immortal beings—nay, of vast nations, with hundreds of millions now living, and hastening on to death, judgment and eternity, and of unborn nations yet to spring from them—are all intimately connected with the duties and engagements of this season.

I cast myself, then, in a deep sense of my own insufficiency, on the sufficient grace of our Omnipotent Redeemer; and in His Name, and looking for the prayers of those who love Him, I enter on the responsible duty of preaching your Annual Sermon.

When our Saviour uttered the memorable words, Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom[a], small indeed was that little flock! The leaven has ever since been diffusing its influence; the grain of mustard-seed has ever since been growing: but, even now, compared with the vast population of the whole globe, the flock of Christ is still small.

Few in number, however, as the true disciples of Christ may be, they are the salt of the earth, and the light of the world[a]. As this salt maintains its savour, the earth is preserved from corruption: as this light shines, the world is enlightened. It is not by the policy of the statesman; it is not by the strength of the army; it is not by the wisdom of the philosopher—however it may please God in critical times to use these for the good of a country; but it is by the faith, hope, and love of the Church, that the earth has been, or will be hereafter, truly blessed. This great principle has for eighteen hundred years been developing itself in the history of mankind; and it fills that beautiful Psalm from which my text is taken.

In considering the text, I would direct your attention to three things:—

I. THE GRACE PRAYED FOR.
II. FOR WHOM IT IS SOUGHT.
III. THE EXTENDED GOOD CONNECTED WITH OBTAINING THIS GRACE.

I. THE GRACE PRAYED FOR.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us. The favour of God is here asked: 1st, In its FOUNTAIN—mercy; 2dly, In its EFFECT—blessing; and 3dly, In its MANIFESTATION—Cause His face to shine upon us.

1. The FOUNTAIN of favour to sinful man is mercy:—God be merciful unto us!

Mercy is that attribute which regards the sinful and miserable with compassion. When the Divine Spirit convinces of sin, the first, the great desire of the soul is, God be merciful to me a sinner[b]! The petition implies a frank confession of sin, and an entire renunciation of all personal merit and worthiness. Mercy is the plea of the guilty, the refuge of the helpless, and the hope of the miserable. This fountain is freely and widely opened to all in the Gospel of the grace of God[c]. There, both mercy and justice gloriously shine on lost man, in combined harmony, and fullest blessedness. God is a just God and a Saviour[d], to whom all the ends of the earth may look, and be saved[e]. As the heaven is high above the earth, so great is His mercy towards them that fear Him: as far as the east is from the west, so far hath He removed our transgressions from us[f]. God is seated on the throne: but, by the propitiatory sacrifice of the Lord Jesus, it is a throne of grace, to which we may boldly come, and obtain mercy[g].

Mercy flows from God the Father, as its spring-head: in the riches of His loving-kindness, He spared not His own Son[h]—that Son, who is the brightness of his Father's glory[i], was made in the likeness of men[k], that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people[l]: and the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, with His multiplied and varied gifts and graces, dividing to every man severally as He will[m], manifests and applies this mercy, to the abounding comfort and everlasting salvation of perishing sinners.

Hope in God's mercy is the sheet-anchor of the sinner on the verge of the tremendous gulf of never-ending ruin. Amidst the wreck of all hopes from goodness of his own, he is enabled, in the faith of the Gospel, to abide secure: and though the waters roar and are troubled[n], he can calmly and triumphantly say, With the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption. He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities[o].

He who believes that God gave his only-begotten Son[p] for man, has solid and Scriptural ground to hope that He will with Him freely give us all things[q]. In this faith he fervently asks: and while he asks, he receives, he experiences, he rejoices; and he longs that others should share his joy.

2. The EFFECT of mercy is blessing.

When we pray, "And bless us!" we offer a most comprehensive petition: it includes all the gifts of grace, heavenly wisdom, filial fear, holy love, the spirit of adoption, freedom to serve God, and boldness, with a quiet and purified conscience, ever to have access, through one Mediator, by one Spirit, to the Father[a].

Those who are blessed of God are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people[b]: Christ has made them kings, and priests, unto God and his Father[c]. Viewing their privileges, the Apostle thus breaks forth in admiring praise: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly things in Christ, according as He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before him in love[d]. He places our election in Christ, as the fountain of all our blessings: he represents the Father as freely giving these blessings out of His own inexhaustible love; and the Son, as the depository of all grace, by whom the Holy Ghost is imparted to the sinner, to make him holy, that he may be eternally happy.

The worldly mind discerns not true blessedness. It places it in being rich and prosperous in this world; successful in our earthly schemes; and surrounded with outward honour, splendour, and pleasure. But those only are truly blessed who prosper in soul; who are poor in spirit, and mourn for sin; who are meek, and who hunger and thirst after righteousness; who are merciful, pure in heart, and peacemakers; and who are persecuted for righteousness' sake[e]. True blessedness is, coming out of the world, being emptied of self, and filled with God[f]; having our delight in His word; knowing, and loving Him, and ever trusting and rejoicing in Him. This is Scriptural blessedness; this is true happiness: it comes from Divine grace alone. These are not natural dispositions, but spiritual blessings.

Fervently then does the Church seek them in prayer, that, by constant supplies of the Spirit, Believers may continue and increase in true blessedness.

[d] Ephes. i. 3, 4. [e] Mat. v. 3—10. [f] Ephes. iii. 19.

3. Once more:—The MANIFESTATION of mercy is prayed for: Cause His face to shine upon us.

The shining of the face is the manifested expression of favour and benevolence, the demonstration of complacency. God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself[g]: but unless He shine into our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of His glory, in the face of Jesus Christ[h], our hearts are veiled and insensible. This open manifestation is the special work of the Holy Ghost: where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. We all with open face, beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord[i]. When He removes the veil, we see the beauty and excellence of our God; and how infinitely and transcendently glorious He is in Himself, and in all His ways. The Spirit thus directs our hearts into the love of God[k]; and while we love, He beareth witness with our spirit that we are the Children of God[l]. He gives us the earnest of our inheritance, and seals us unto the day of redemption[m]. We hunger, we thirst, we pant after God; and we find, even in His presence here below, fulness of joy[n]. The beams also of the Divine glory are reflected from Him on whom God thus shines: His purity and holiness, His love and tenderness, His meekness and gentleness, His devotion and heavenly mindedness, shew whose He is, and whom He serves. Thus the reality and unspeakable blessedness of true Religion is seen. It bears the stamp of the Divine Image, and has the manifest testimony of the Lord of All.

But the perfection of the grace here sought for is reserved for heavenly glory: there only shall we fully behold the beauty of God[o], or be able to bear the blaze of the beams of His glory, and see him face to face[p]. O happy day! Let us exclaim with the Psalmist, As for me, I will behold Thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake with Thy likeness[p]:—and with the Apostle, When He shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as He is[a]:—then shall I know, even as also I am known[b].

Here is the grace prayed for, in its FOUNTAIN, its EFFECT, and its MANIFESTATION. It comprehends all that we want, for time and for eternity. And let this grace be distributed through the Church according as it is needed in the various relations of that Church, and then indeed will she be a praise in the earth[c].

II. FOR WHOM THIS GRACE IS SOUGHT.

"Unto us."—Our text is the prayer of the Jewish Church, before the first coming of Christ; pouring out those sighs after its enlargement, and those hopes of its extension, which have ever characterized the true Church; and which had an immediate fulfilment when our Lord Christ first came, and his Church beheld his glory, the glory as of the only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth[d]; and He became the Light to lighten the Gentiles, as well as the glory of His people Israel[e].

We may also confidently entertain the hope that Jewish converts shall yet hereafter be specially used for making God's ways known, since their being received again shall be life from the dead[f]: yet, as all who are Christ's are in truth Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise[g], the prayer may well be regarded in a more general view; and the Church at large is encouraged, by many great and rich promises, to look forward, amidst all the shaking of the nations and the judgments of God on the wicked, to a season of special mercy, blessedness, and manifested favour.

The occasion leads me to apply the subject to that particular portion of God's Church which is placed in these realms, and to view our religious state with especial reference to Missionary exertions.—That I may the more distinctly place the subject before you, I will consider the need of this prayer for US—as a NATION, as a CHURCH, and as a SOCIETY.

1. View the need of this prayer for us as a NATION.

[a] 1 John iii. 2. [b] 1 Cor. xiii. 12. [c] Is. lxiii. 7.
[d] John i. 14. [e] Luke ii. 32. [f] Rom. xi. 15.
[g] Gal. iii. 29.

Peculiar, at the present moment, is the state of Great Britain. Very distinguished have been our privileges, from the time that God gave us the blessed Reformation. We Britons may apply to ourselves the divine expression in Isaiah: Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee[h]. The word of God has been freely circulated among us; great has been the company of those that have published it[i]. In this land, within the last three centuries, many of God's most honoured Ministers have been raised up; we have had abundant testimony to God's truths, in the writings of His Servants; and numbers of devoted Christians have here glorified Him by their holy lives, labours, and sufferings. No country has been more exalted to heaven in privilege than Great Britain.

Many a time have the black clouds of judgment hung heavy over us; and sometimes a part of those clouds have for our sins descended upon us; but when we have cried unto God, He has ever stayed His hand. What British Christian will not gratefully acknowledge our late experience of His goodness? Other nations have been awfully visited with a grievous disease, which reached also our shores; but when we sought God in a National Fast, He has restrained its virulence; and while our deepest sympathy, and most fervent prayers, should be excited for others, surely we must all feel, that, in its course among us hitherto, God has dealt most mercifully with us! From century to century God has been giving us fresh accessions of civilization, commerce, wealth, and foreign possessions. Extended regions in every clime are under our direct dominion or influence. In the Western Hemisphere, scattered over its northern coasts and productive islands; in the Eastern, from the River Gambia, skirting Africa, and through India and Australasia; God has entrusted to us an empire, which places under the influence of Britain one-sixth of the inhabitants of the earth.

The Sun of Righteousness has for ages shone upon our country, and has illuminated her once-benighted inhabitants. She has received all her glory from the only Source of Light:—she is fixed conspicuously in the moral firmament, not for her selfish aggrandisement, but that she may dispel the midnight gloom of that dark world over which her reign extends, and reflect, through her dependencies in every clime, the mild, beneficent, and saving rays of spiritual light.

[h] Is. xliii. 4. [i] Ps. lxviii. 11.

But what have been our RETURNS to Him who has bestowed all this upon us?

Look first AT HOME.—God has ever had his people here; and they have sought His glory, by confessing His name, and labouring for the spiritual good of all around them. But what is the state of the nation in general? View it in the light of God's Word: and where can we stop, after the Reformation, without pain? Can we review without humiliation the falling away from the doctrines of grace in the reigns subsequent to that era—the wildness of the Commonwealth—the dissipation of the succeeding period—the general dearth of spiritual good that followed—or the way in which the revival of Religion was opposed, and the difficulties through which it has struggled to the present hour.

And while pure Religion has revived, open wickedness has also concurrently and fearfully advanced. Regard two features of the present day—the violation of the SABBATH, and the tone of the PUBLIC JOURNALS.

As to THE SABBATH.—Though we have not the Book of Sports, the awful profanation of a former era, yet we have the Sunday Press—a name unknown to our forefathers, with its eighteen London and one Country Journals, circulating probably ninety thousand Newspapers each Sabbath. We have Sunday Meetings for secular objects; and all the Sunday travelling, traffic, and vain pleasures, by which, in this our land, God is on every Sabbath so daringly provoked.

Look at the PUBLIC JOURNALS.—Daily journals, faithfully recording God's providence in the history of man, and conducted in the spirit of the Gospel, would be an immense auxiliary to True Religion, and all Religious Societies;—but we cannot say that this has yet been attained. Two hundred and twenty-seven Newspapers issue from the press, circulating above thirty millions of copies in the year. We justly rejoice in the diffusion of Religious Tracts; but have we duly considered the counteracting influence of twenty-two millions of Newspapers from London alone, which in the last year circulated through Britain, imbuing the whole public mind and sentiment of the country? For what is the character of this constantly renewed mass of principles, which impregnates our whole land? Judging from some extensively circulated, is not its prevailing character without God in the world? With the exceptions of professedly Religious Newspapers of limited circulation, and occasional admissions in others, is not the name of the one Jehovah, the only Creator, Governor, Disposer, and Judge of all—the only Redeemer and Saviour—the only true Guide, Sanctifier, and Comforter of man—generally either wholly excluded, or barely acknowledged? Or, if God be referred to, is it not sometimes to deny His moral government, or to scoff at His truth and revile His servants? Have not these Journals generally many of the awful features of those last days, when perilous times shall come, and men shall be boasters, proud, blasphemers, unthankful, unholy, inconsistent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God?[a] In addition to the London Newspapers, above ten millions of Country Journals were issued in the last year; making, in the whole, an average issue of eighty-nine thousand copies every day of every week. Must we not consider the Public Journals either as a faithful index of the moral state of the nation by which they are read and supported, or at least as having a mighty influence on the public mind? In either view, they furnish painful evidence of the general defect of true godliness in our land.

Look next ABROAD.—What unparalleled means have been entrusted to us for honouring God among the Heathen, and blessing them with the richest boon which man can convey to his fellow-men! But to what has our Commerce been dedicated?—to Christ, or to Mammon? What has been the moral character of Europeans in our Foreign Settlements? The very colour of the population declares the extensive defect of moral principle: When they entered among the Heathen, whither they went, they profaned my Holy Name, when they said to them, These are the people of the Lord, and are gone forth out of His land[a]. Our principles of Administration abroad—have they been those of the Gospel, or of the World? The still-continued sanction of the abominations of Idolatrous Worship in the East, and the fearful detention of eight hundred thousand human beings in bondage in the West, are affecting proofs of our national guilt. When we remember that Britain was once a Papal kingdom, and that judgments are manifestly threatened on nations adhering to the Papal Antichrist, the Christian cannot but tremble at any steps that bring us nearer to it, or weaken our decided protest against it.

I admit that we have many of God's people among us, the true Israel, that shall be preserved unhurt amidst the destruction of others. Could we see their principles prevailing and bearing sway through the land, then would Britain attain safety, blessedness, and glory, far beyond all that it has yet reached or imagined. But while there is no instance of a nation zealous for God being unprosperous, let it stir up our most fervent prayers for our country to remember, that the first Jewish Christians did vastly more to publish the Gospel than British Christians have done, and were honoured with largest success; but the Jewish Nation, only the more rebelling against the Lord, was cut off without remedy.

Viewing the whole, then, and contemplating these signs of the times, there is the greatest possible reason—there is the fullest encouragement, as well as the most awakening motive—for much prayer. The brightest hope for our beloved country is, that God has among us those who have proved their faith and love by enlarged labours to diffuse His Gospel; and that there are, year by year, an increasing number fervently praying, God be merciful to us, and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us!

2. View further the need of this prayer for us, AS A CHURCH.

Undoubtedly the Church of Christ has experienced a gracious and extended revival in our land. I joyfully bear testimony to this, as manifest, even within my own knowledge of the state of the Church in the earlier years of our labours and at the present time.

[a] Ezek. xxxvi. 20.

Indeed, the proofs of this revival are evident to every eye. We see it in that highly-honoured Institution, the British and Foreign Bible Society, which has been the means of the issuing of eleven millions of copies of the Holy Scriptures; and has extended its care in this work to One hundred and fifty-three languages. What Christian is there who does not rejoice that nations, whether barbarous or civilized, African or Asiatic, American or European, can, by means of this Society, read in their own tongue the wonderful works of God?

We see another proof of the same revival in modern Missionary Stations. In Western and Southern Africa, in the African Islands, on the shores and islands of the Mediterranean, on the Red, the Black, and the Caspian Seas, on the Persian Gulf, in Siberia and China, in India beyond, and India within the Ganges, in Ceylon, Sumatra, Java, and Batavia, in Australasia and Polynesia, in Spanish America, Guiana, and the West-Indies, and among the North-American Indians up to Labrador and Greenland, the feet of them that publish good tidings are beautiful to many a once-sorrowful captive of Satan. Yes, in our day, through Missionaries from our land—all glory be to God!—the once subtle Mahomedan and untutored Negro, the artful Brahmin and filthy Hottentot, the Cannibal, New-Zealander, and licentious Tahitian, the besotted Esquimaux, and even the prejudiced Jew, have relinquished their varied superstitions, received with one accord the doctrine of the Cross, and adored our Crucified and Exalted Jesus. Delightful as this subject is, I will not go further, and dwell upon similar proofs of revival in Home and Foreign exertions for diffusing Divine Truth, by Sabbath Schools, Tracts, and general Education; for I have rather to seek to quicken you to new efforts, than to repose with any self-satisfaction on what has been already done.

But with this revival there has been a very enlarged putting forth of the power of the enemy. There is enough of blessing to excite the liveliest hopes; and there is a growth of evil to call forth the most ardent prayer.

Though the pure doctrines of Christ have been extensively proclaimed, and liberal love has been manifested by many a member of the Church of Christ; yet still, through our land, how extended also is the reign of Formal Religion! and in places where there is more than this, the number of those who, with enlightened mind, self-denying zeal, and real sacrifice, aid the cause of Christ, is painfully scanty. It is affecting to observe, from how very few, comparatively, even where much is done, the whole of what is done really proceeds. The men of light, zeal, and love, may be counted by units.

The general state of Parishes may shew us the general state of the Church. It was computed by Dr. Yates, that in a district within eight miles of St. Paul's, in a population of 1,152,000 inhabitants, more than 953,000 never can attend Public Worship in the Establishment. The increase of Churches since that time, and the Dissenting Places of Worship, without which the Church of Christ at large would be still more destitute, do not countervail the increase of population. In one English Diocese, out of a population of 150,000, the attendants at church amounted to 19,169, and the communicants to 4134; about one in seven only attending church; about one in thirty-eight only attending the Lord's Table! Do not such documents almost go to prove that we are still, in effect, an unchristianized land?

Peculiarly painful, also, are the divisions which exist among those who love the same Lord. Satan has fought with his old success, by the spirit of distinction, separation, and division; and we have forgotten the oft-repeated exhortation, to follow the things that make for peace[a]. May our God at length heal every breach! make us like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind[b]! And if we must differ in judgment, let us still live in the spirit of the prayer, Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus in sincerity[c]! Every Christian will surely in these days sigh out for his fellow-servants, his Master's petition, "That they all may be one[d]!"

We rejoice, then, with trembling[e], when we take an enlarged view of the state of the Church, and, with all that is done, behold a great majority having the form of godliness without the power[f]; while the remnant of those who love the Saviour are too much disunited and separated from one another—Ephraim envying Judah, and Judah vexing Ephraim[g]. There are affecting tokens of many sins and infirmities; but, blessed be God! there is a true Church among us, the Tabernacle of the Living God. God is known in her palaces for a refuge: the Lord of Hosts is with us[h]:—and shall not every member of that Church say, Stir up Thy strength, and come and save us! Turn us again, O God, and cause Thy face to shine! and we shall be saved[i].

2. View, lastly, the need of this prayer for us AS A SOCIETY.

A Missionary Society combines the faith, hope, and love of the Church in one effort, and is the manifestation of its associated zeal for the salvation of men. It holds forth the light of the Church, carries it abroad, and enlightens distant regions. We cannot, therefore, review the progress of such Institutions without great thankfulness to our God.

At the beginning of the eighteenth century, feeble indeed was the concentrated Missionary Effort of the Christian Church, in the Danish, Dutch, and Anglo-American Missions. But, by slow degrees, through the last century, the spirit of Missions extended.

At the beginning of this century, the Church of England had, for ninety years, helped to sustain the small Danish Missions in the East. The United Brethren had, for nearly seventy years, engaged in this Christian work, The Wesleyans had laboured for some years in the West-Indies. The Baptists, and the general body of Christians, were also extending their exertions. But the united effort of the whole Protestant Church was not, we apprehend, equal to that of one of the larger Societies of the present day.

In the last year, we find that in this country, on the Continent of Europe, and in the United States, there were not fewer than Sixty-one Missionary, Bible, Education, and Tract Societies, with an aggregate income for the year amounting to 619,645*l.* Of this, 511,000*l.* was raised in the British Empire, and 108,000*l.* in other countries.

[f] 2 Tim. iii. 5. [g] Is. xi. 13. [h] Ps. xlviii. 3. xlvi. 7.
[i] Ps. lxxx. 2.

But I direct your attention more immediately to our own Society. Its progress has hitherto been full of encouragement.

Its income in its first year, in subscriptions, was under 200*l.* The average annual contribution was in its first ten years, 1500*l.*; in its second ten years, 15,000*l.*; in its third ten years, 30,000*l.*; and in the year before last, 46,584*l.*

In 1804, its first Mission was established in West Africa. It there began its labours among the Heathen, with two Missionaries. We have now Nine principal Missions, 56 Stations, 54 Ordained Ministers, 603 Labourers, 370 Schools, 15,791 Scholars. While looking at this success, we join in the angelic song, Glory to God in the highest! and on earth, peace; good-will towards men! or, in the sublime Anthem of our Church, "We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory, O Lord God, Heavenly King, God, the Father, Almighty!"

But while we magnify God for the grace bestowed on His Servants, and while we believe that some have to their power, yea, and beyond their power[a], contributed to this blessed cause, we dare not rest only in the bright view of this subject. Consider what all these exertions are, when compared with the real resources of the country. Our population exceeds twenty-four millions. The rental of our landed property is rated at sixty millions a-year; the interest of our funded debt is thirty millions; and to these the untold profits of professional pursuits, merchandize, traffic, and labour, must be added, to shew the total income of the inhabitants of this country. Our taxes on luxuries may also, in some measure, illustrate our means of voluntary expenditure; remembering, that these taxes are but a limited proportion of the real sum which we pay for luxuries taxed. In 1830, the amount of the Customs in the British Isles on foreign articles imported was twenty-one millions; the amount of the Duties on British and foreign spirits was upwards of eight

Contrast, then, exertions in Missions by Protestants of every land, with the manifested resources of this country. Our national rental and funded interest, the more independent part of our national income, exclusive of the profits of professions, merchandize, traffic, and labour, averages about seventy-five shillings a-year for each individual of our twenty-four millions of inhabitants. The aggregate sum given to all the Religious Institutions put together averages but 6*d.* a-year for each individual inhabitant of our country: the sum contributed to the Church Missionary Society does not average a single half-penny a-year from each. The bare taxes on luxuries, or injurious indulgences, make us blush for our country, by shewing us how totally disproportionate is our whole expenditure for Missionary objects. The mere Customs are thirty-five times as much; the bare duties on British and Foreign spirits are thirteen times as much as all Protestant Christians give to Religious Societies. The taxes on our carriages and riding-horses exceed the whole annual income of all Religious Societies of Protestant Nations!—May we each gather a practical lesson, to give more to the Cause of Christ than we do to vain pleasure; and not to be among those who are lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God[b].

It is clear, then, that our Missionary exertions are yet very inadequate to the wealth and resources of England. The Cause of Christ is yet very feebly supported among us. If the rule be Scriptural, By their fruits ye shall know them[c], we must conclude that the main solicitude of our country is not for the kingdom of God, but for the things of this world. Our shipping is almost wholly engaged to procure luxuries. Is it not to be feared that the cares of our merchants and the desires of our population, notwithstanding we are professedly a Christian Nation, are, not to seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness—though then we should have God's promise for other things[d]; but to seek first our worldly interests—though then we seek them without a promise, and without a blessing.

Nor can we look at our UNIVERSITIES without some painful feelings. While grateful to God for pecuniary aid, and rejoicing in the personal labours of Brown and Buchanan, Martyn and Thomason, it is evident that there is yet a general backwardness in the Students there to go forth as Ambassadors of Christ to the Heathen. From the two Seats of Learning, in a land which has such extended influence over the Heathen World, while crowds press into the Ministry at home, and into every Profession, we have hardly any Missionaries: the office that can occupy to the utmost the highest endowments and attainments of man, and which is the nearest imitation of the Saviour and his Apostles, must be supplied from other quarters. May the omnipotent grace of the Divine Spirit so descend on our Universities, that this reproach may no longer be attached to them! May the Lord of the Harvest send forth from thence many a faithful Labourer into his harvest[a]!

Yet, in the midst of all the worldliness of our land, there is a little flock, a goodly company, a growing band, increasing in numbers year by year, loving Christ the Lord, caring for the Heathen; some freely giving for them, and others going to them. To the grace given to these we owe the support of our Religious Societies.

The insufficiency of the income of most of our Societies for the work which Providence opens before them may again shew us the need of prayer. Amidst all the wealth of England in this day, almost every Religious Society is cramped and limited by the want of funds. The income of the Church Missionary Society has not, for the last ten years, so risen as to enable it to undertake a new Mission. In this year, I regret to say, the income is 5800*l.* short of last year; so as to awaken our liveliest apprehensions for the maintenance of its present operations.

The yet more serious difficulties—the source, indeed, of all others—those which arise, not only from flesh and blood, but from Principalities and Powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world[b], those spiritual foes with whom we wrestle, must be added, to illustrate the necessity of praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit[c]. Who can calculate all the mighty impediments of Missions, occasioned every day by our fallen nature, by a word lying in the Wicked-one[d], and by that bitter foe which is emphatically styled the god of this world[e]? Our only, but our sufficient hope to overcome them is, that He that is in us is greater than he that is in the world[f].

These things should especially lead us constantly to pray for our Society; and not for ours only, but for all the blessed Societies engaged in this work. May our God abundantly succour and prosper all Societies holding Christ the Head, and seeking to make His salvation known in the earth! They are all one; and we unite all in the prayer, God be merciful to us, and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us!

We proceed to consider,

III. THE EXTENDED GOOD CONNECTED WITH OBTAINING THIS GRACE—That Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations.

Dark indeed was the state of the world when this prayer was first poured forth! and ample is the encouragement to persevering prayer, from the answer already received in the diffusion of the Gospel among nations once Heathen, and now Christian.

I would lead you to consider, 1. THE STATE OF NATIONS STILL HEATHEN; 2. THE BLESSING DESIRED FOR THEM; and, 3. ITS CONNEXION WITH THE PRECEDING PRAYER.

1. THE STATE OF NATIONS STILL HEATHEN—They are ignorant of God's way, and of His saving health.

The larger portion of our race manifests, even to our day, the humbling truth, that the world by wisdom knew not God[g]. Estimating the population of the earth at eight hundred millions, there are still six hundred millions of Heathens or Mahomedans hastening on to the eternal world without a ray of revealed light. The Word of God is wholly unknown to them; the Ministers of Christ never teach them: they have no holy Sabbaths, no Christian Schools; not a single promise, to be a foundation of solid hope, not a single divine testimony, to be a warrant of faith.

But what is their religious state? Who can count the Idols of INDIA; the absurd and wicked objects they worship; their holy places and rivers, their pilgrimages, their sacrifices, penances, festivals, and consecrated acts of licentiousness and cruelty? Their moral state, as laid before us by the successive Bishops of Calcutta, by the late Mr. Grant, by Dr. Buchanan and Mr. Ward, corresponds to their religion. The vices of their gods are the vices of the people: their religion is the patron of their iniquities!

Nor is AFRICA in a better state. Nothing can be more false than the religion of the people, nor more degraded than their morals. There is a darkness that may be felt[a]. When in Africa, I told a Heathen Chief that he must appear before God, when he died; and I asked how he would answer for his sins. He replied, "Massa, me know me appear before God: but what me answer Him, me not know!"

There is a negative feature of Heathenism that has often painfully affected me. We have reason to believe that the Divine Spirit is chiefly given with Revealed Truth. We receive the Spirit by the hearing of faith[b]. We cannot expect, then, the fruit of the Holy Spirit to grow on heathen soil, without the preaching of the Gospel. Think, Christians, of this touching fact! You know the blessedness of godly sorrow: you know the joy of forgiven iniquity: you have had communion with God your Father, with Christ your Saviour, and with the Spirit your Comforter: you have felt the peace that passeth understanding[c], and the delight of fellowship with the Saints; and, in happier moments, you have rejoiced in hope of the glory of God[d]. Pity, then, the forlorn and desolate millions, who are without one of those blessings in which you find daily support, consolation, and happiness!

We shall be the more able to realize their spiritual destitution, by entering into some particulars concerning several large cities in Hindostan, where much has been done in Missions.

Surat has Two hundred thousand inhabitants, and but TWO European Christian Instructors.

Patna has Three hundred and twelve thousand inhabitants, and but ONE European Instructor.

Moorshedabad has One hundred and sixty-five thousand inhabitants, and NO Missionary.

Lucknow has Three hundred thousand inhabitants, and NO Missionary.

If this be the state of these vast cities, there must be innumerable places, of great though inferior population, altogether destitute.

Heathen lands, not under Christian Government, are in still greater darkness. The empire of China, with its One hundred and fifty millions of people, has but Two or Three European Missionaries for the whole. In the kingdom of Japan, with its untold millions, there is not one Ambassador of Christ.

Even were this life the whole of man, when we hear such things, if there be any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies[e], surely we should desire to share with our fellow-creatures our inestimable present privileges and blessings!

But this life is not the whole of man, nor the chief concern of man. He has an immortal soul; and if he be without Christ, he has no hope, and is without God in the world[f].—If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His[g]. It is in this view that the situation of the Heathen is most affecting; and, on this head, there are declarations in the Scripture that should rouse every Christian sympathy, and call forth every Christian exertion.

Remember their proved condition. They are unholy; and the word of God says, Without holiness no man shall see the Lord[h]. They are idolatrous; and the Inspired Book says, Idolaters shall not inherit the kingdom of God[i]. They are living in wickedness; and it is written by the Holy Ghost, The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God[a]. They are unconverted; and our Saviour declares, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God[b].

[e] Phil. ii. 1. [f] Eph. ii. 12. [g] Rom. viii. 9.
[h] Heb. xii. 14. [i] 1 Cor. vi. 9.

I know the aggravated guilt and condemnation of those who know their Lord's will, and do it not: I bear in mind the more tolerable punishment of Sodom and Gomorrah than that of Chorazin and Bethsaïda: but sure I am that such passages should thrill through our souls: and just in proportion as we judge of the state of the heathen by the Divine Record, shall we long and pray and labour for the time when God's way shall be known on earth, and His saving health among all nations.

But what is

2. THE BLESSING DESIRED FOR THEM?—It is this: That the salvation of God may be everywhere known.

It has been observed, that the terms, though divided in the text, may be read and viewed as one desire—'that Thy way of salvation may be known among all nations on earth.' There is also a reference to the foregoing prayer, as illustrating God's way of salvation; which is, being merciful to, blessing, and shining upon men.

But let us more closely and distinctly view these terms.

"THY way"—That wonderful way, in which Mercy and Truth meet together, Righteousness and Peace kiss each other[c]. Christ is the Light, the Beauty, and the Glory of this way; the very Path in which we walk to heaven; the only Medium of the sinner's access to God, and of his communication from God. In no other way can we come to the knowledge and enjoyment of God, the all-sufficient portion of the soul; and in no other method can we know the Son, but by the Holy Spirit: for no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost[d]. As the Spirit is poured out, Christ is known, and God's way is known. And, oh! what a mercy is it that this way is open to the vilest of sinners! Christ is for the sinful: His name is Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins[e].

[a] Ps. ix. 17. [b] John iii. 3. [c] Ps. lxxxv. 10.
[d] 1 Cor. xii. 3. [e] Matt. i. 21.

"THY SAVING HEALTH" is a beautiful translation of the Hebrew word ordinarily rendered salvation. Saving health is for the desperately sick: salvation is for the lost. This suits you and me; and the Heathen also. Here is a full, a free, a complete Remedy for the moral diseases of the whole world.

The pronoun "Thy" is emphatic, as shewing all this is not of man's devising, but of God's. Here is the glory of this salvation: it is not by man's doings or works: it comes from the throne of God: it is all divine; all of free and sovereign grace; all of rich, unmerited, and infinite love and compassion. It proceeds FROM God, as its Source; it leads TO God, as its End.

It is, further, to be made "KNOWN ON EARTH, AND AMONG ALL NATIONS."—It is a healing Remedy, fully commensurate to the wants of our fallen race. Is the God of the spirits of all flesh[f] justly offended? and is the guilty world exposed to His righteous and tremendous wrath?—here is a propitiation for the sins of the world[g]! Is man universally captive under sin?—here is a Ransom for all[h]. May we, then, proclaim it to every human being? Yes; it is the very last command which our Saviour gave on earth—Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature[i]: it is the very last invitation that He sends in His word from heaven, —Whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely[k].

But may we expect that all nations will embrace this salvation? I would reply: The words of Scripture may excite large hope: passages are numerous which have this bearing: All nations whom Thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord! and glorify thy Name[l].

But, however Christians may interpret such promises, it is clear, that wherever the word of Christ goes, it shall not return void[m]. Everywhere "those whom God has chosen out of mankind," as our XVIIth Article speaks, He will "bring by Christ to everlasting salvation, as vessels made to honour. Wherefore they which be endued with so excellent a benefit of God, be called according to His purpose, by His Spirit working in due season: they, through grace, obey the calling; they be justified freely; they be made sons of God by adoption; they be made like the image of his only-begotten Son Jesus Christ; they walk religiously in good works; and at length, by God's mercy, they attain to everlasting felicity." Let this way, then, be universally known on earth; and, in dependence on God's promise, we may expect that it will produce effects unspeakably blessed.

It will greatly promote human happiness.—Seldom, alas! is the larger portion of a community converted, in which the Gospel is most faithfully dispensed. But it is not therefore weak and inefficient, towards even that larger portion. Where one is converted, the moral standard of very many will be raised. By the spirit and life of one Christian, truth and justice, integrity and uprightness, benevolence and liberality, are called forth around him; the light which he reflects from Jesus in some degree dispels the darkness of the atmosphere; and selfishness, worldliness, intemperance, and innumerable other vices, are checked and restrained.

By the knowledge of God's way the earth shall yield her best increase. For nearly 6000 years, the larger portion of the earth has been yielding thorns and thistles, sin and wickedness. Satan has been its god; and men have had their conversation in the lusts of the flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind[a]. But let God's way be known among all nations[b], and the earth will everywhere be richly laden with the fruits of righteousness—love, joy, peace, gentleness, goodness, meekness, long-suffering, faith, and temperance: this cluster of graces, the fruit of the Spirit[c], grows only on the soil of the Gospel. Oh! what a triumphant song of glory will rend the skies when the King of kings shall reign supreme over all kingdoms, and govern the nations upon earth! —The people shall praise thee, O God! all the people shall praise thee! Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us[d].

But there is a higher result;—immortal souls shall then be saved from endless ruin. God's way is the only way of salvation for the never-dying soul. This stamps an infinite grandeur on the Gospel. There is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved, but the Name of Jesus[e]. If I have the means of saving a drowning fellow-creature, shall I not use them? If I can help to raise a ladder by which those who are perishing in the flames may escape from a burning dwelling, shall I not assist in doing so? If the crew of a sinking vessel be in the utmost extremity of danger within my sight, and I have the life-boat and the sailors at my command, shall I refuse to send them? The common feeling of humanity forbids;—the guilt of their blood resting upon my head forbids. And is it a case of less, or of greater extremity, that Missions present to us? Is it a greater or less guilt that the perishing through our neglect of millions of immortal beings brings on us? If we have faith in the word of God, I need not reply. Let us then make known God's way among them, that we may be the instruments of at least gathering in a part of that great multitude which no man can number, of all nations and kindreds, people and tongues, who shall stand before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and for ever sing salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb[f].

[a] Eph. ii. 3. [b] Phil. i. 11. [c] Gal. v. 22.
[d] Ps. lxvii. 4—7.

The chief result, however, of God's way being known on earth is THE GLORY THEREBY BROUGHT TO GOD. Hallowed be thy Name[g]! is the first petition which our Lord has taught us. Wherever the Gospel is faithfully preached, God is manifested, and God is glorified. The Apostle's statement is very decisive and affecting:—Thanks be unto God! which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place. For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish. To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other, the savour of life unto life[h]. The power, the holiness, and the equity of God are manifested in the perishing of the wicked, who reject the Gospel; and His grace, mercy, and loving-kindness in the salvation of his chosen people. Whether the Gospel be received or rejected, God loses not His revenue of glory in its being diffused: and here is solidly met that objection which is made to the Gospel's being preached, that it will be in vain, or the number of converts be limited. It cannot be in vain: His word shall prosper in the thing whereto He sends it[a]. Every soul saved is an unspeakably precious reward (James x. 20): but even in the case of those that are lost, God loses not His glory. The Preachers of the Gospel, even in the souls that perish, are unto God a sweet savour of Christ[b]; and the Christian will through eternity rest in the willingness of God to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, in enduring with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction[c], as well as, through eternity, joy in His willingness to make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy which he had afore prepared unto glory[d].

[e] Acts iv. 12. [f] Rev. vii. 9, 10. [g] Matt. vi. 9.

But God is eminently glorified in His grace: He delighteth in mercy[e]. Oh! what tongue can utter all the blessedness of a saved soul, and all the harmonies and illustrations of the perfections and glory of Jehovah in its salvation! It is such as to occasion joy in the presence of the angels of God[f]. How, then, will the desired change of our text enlarge this joy beyond measure. Then Christ shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied[g]: then shall His own prayer be realized—God's name will be hallowed, His kingdom come, and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven[h].

I have further to notice,

3. THE CONNEXION OF THE DESIRED CHANGE WITH THE PRECEDING PRAYER.

The change is a result referring to, and arising from, the answer to the preceding prayer. If God be merciful to, bless and shine upon, sinful man, every soul is thus favoured, not merely for its own sake, but in order to manifest the glory of God by bearing the light to others. It is the character pervading the whole of the Divine dispensations. God never blesses a man for his own sake, but to make him a blessing; and that thus God may, in all things, be glorified through Jesus Christ.

Let us now view our Nation, our Church, and our Society, receiving the grace prayed for, and God using us to produce the desired change.

Suppose THE NATION at large to receive the mercy, blessing, and illumination of God;—those national evils which pain the Christian's heart will be renounced and forsaken. The Holy Ghost being largely shed upon us, God's Sabbaths will be a delight, holy of the Lord, and honourable[i]. The fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, and peace[k]—with all their accompanying lovely train, will abound among us. While our presses cease to violate the Sabbath, they will, on every week-day, be pouring forth, not the desolating flood of pride and strife, enmity, hatred, and insubordination, but the refreshing and fructifying streams of righteousness through our land. We shall be a holy nation, a people fearing God and working righteousness[l]; and it shall be said of us, Happy is the people whose God is the Lord[m]! God would smile upon us, and frown upon our enemies.

Thus, also, the interests of true godliness would flourish through the earth: for if you ask what nation has now most the power to convey the Gospel through the heathen world, it must be replied, Great Britain. Look only at our London, Bristol, or Liverpool ports. See the daily Lists of Shipping: 23,721 vessels belong to the United Kingdom, manned by 154,000 sailors. With what heathen land do not some one or other of those vessels traffic? What day might not thus convey from our shores, to one or another benighted heathen country, the light of Divine Truth? Were even our soldiers and sailors, our merchants, and our civil officers—scattered as they are everywhere through our colonies—Christians, not in name only, but in truth also, what epistles of Christ, known and read of all men[n], should we have in every land! The facilities of Great Britain for diffusing the Gospel are altogether unparalleled. Our means of access are equally unprecedented. Our foreign possessions are spread through the earth. They skirt Africa: they predominate in South Asia and Australasia: they head North-America, and, by the West-Indies, South America also; and we have a central point in the Mediterranean for three Continents. Never, never was a country so well situated to be a Missionary Land; never before did God give to any nation such capabilities of being the light of the world[a]. Britain may yet be the moral granary, and the spiritual storehouse, for the heathen world.

O Britain! my country! endeared by ten thousand grateful recollections, but most of all endeared by the bright light of Divine Truth which thy God has given thee! is this greatest earthly glory yet in reserve for thee?—Thou, God! knowest[b].—Make us thine! Shine Thou upon us, and our commerce will be holiness to the Lord[c]; and our Merchants at large will do, what individual Merchants have done—count it their richest privilege to convey freely the Messengers of the Churches[d] to the distant heathen.

Our colonies will feel the reviving influence of a Christianized Britain. The promise made to the Jews will then be realized to us. It shall come to pass, as ye were a curse among the Heathen . . . . . so will I save you, and make you a blessing[e]. If the resources of this country were but duly employed for the Lord, how soon would be the meliorating power of the Gospel be felt by every idolater through our extended empire! An adequate provision would at once be made by us for the wants of our dependencies; the Slavery of the West would no longer be retained; and the Idolatry of India, left to itself, would speedily vanish before the daylight of Truth. Then India, from the Indus to the Ganges, from Cape Comorin to the Himalayah Mountains, would be trodden by Missionary Labourers: Africa would welcome in every tribe and village the Missionary White Man: China and Japan would hear the Gospel. Britain must yet be acknowledged as the land shadowing with wings, sending its Ambassadors by the sea[f], which shall bring to the place of the Name of the Lord of Hosts, His People Israel, the nation scattered and peeled, meted out and trodden down. Then would the fulness of the Gentiles come in, all Israel be saved[g], and the whole earth know that only saving name, the Name of Jesus. Oh! for the triumph of that faith, which realises success, substantiates things hoped for, and, in joyful anticipation, exclaims, God, even our own God, shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him!

But it is the CHURCH that must lead the nation to this sphere of blessedness. Let OUR CHURCH, then, receive the mercy, blessing, and illumination of God; and how prodigious would be its influence! It would then be said of her, Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners[h]? The formalist would not abandon his form, but would gain the power as well as the form of godliness[i]. The churches of the land would be too scanty for the crowded congregations: the Communicants would be too numerous to be told: Christians would everywhere be seen, like Enoch, walking with God[k], having intimate communion with the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; and then, sweet fellowship with one another. At length we should see realised that oneness for which our Redeemer, 1800 years ago, poured forth the ardent prayer, That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent me[l]. Then would Christians have in every man's conscience a testimony, God is in you of a truth[m].

Whatever, also, may become of our nation, the true members of the Church of God shall be upheld amid the shaking of all nations[n]. The state of the nation is critical, but the state of the true Church is not critical. The nation, if penitent, may be spared; or, if impenitent, may fall for ever; but the Church of Christ shall never fall. When the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat[a], Christians shall rise safe above the tremendous scene, and abide for ever with their Lord[b].

Yet, under God, it now rests with our Church to be an extended blessing to the world. God has from the beginning ordained this to be the character of His Church. Abraham was not only to be blessed in himself, but a blessing[c]. The Jews were to be witnesses for God[d]. The disciples of Christ were to be the light of the world; and Christians everywhere, in the midst of crooked and perverse nations, are to shine as lights holding forth the word of life[e]. Every Christian is, in principle, in heart, and in life, to be a Missionary. The more pure the spiritual light is of each individual Christian, the more his immediate circle is enlightened. The more bright and full the light of a single congregation, the more largely spiritual blessedness is spread in its neighbourhood: and let churches multiply, like the primitive churches, full of the Holy Ghost, and of one heart and of one soul[f], and the Universal Church, in the accomplishment of the Prophetic vision, will be called to its ultimate triumph: Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee: and the Gentiles shall come to thy light; and kings to the brightness of thy rising[g].

But the Church must shine by the union of its true members. Let OUR SOCIETY, then, with every other which God has raised up, partake of the same mercy, blessedness, and illumination; and what a career of glory opens before it! It has taken a large standing. It has, in the simplicity of faith, like Abraham of old, obeyed the Divine mandate, and gone forth, not knowing where God would lead it[h]. It has thus gone into all the world, east and west, north and south, seeking only to fulfil the direction to preach the Gospel to every creature[i]. It has erected a machinery to touch every heathen land: it has reached the distant mountains: the altars are erected; and what wait we for? It waits only for the kindling fire from Heaven.

There is not one point that its warmest friends, and its most active agents at home and abroad, feel more strongly, or press more urgently, for every and any degree of success, than our absolute dependence on the grace of God. There is not one point that my experience in the Society, and all my knowledge of its varied proceedings at home, in the Committee, in the Institution for the education of its Missionaries, and in its Associations, leads me to urge more upon every friend of the Society, than constantly to offer up the fervent prayer of my text. Recollecting all the varied Correspondence of the Missionaries, and the actual personal knowledge which as an eye and ear witness of the state of the Heathen in Africa, and the labours of Missionaries there, there is no one thing which I conceive to be of so much vital moment to the prosperity of our Missions as the increase of the spirit of prayer.

I rejoice, indeed, to glorify the grace of God, in bearing the testimony now of a disinterested witness, that, after viewing for fifteen years the whole interior of our Society, and knowing all the secret springs of its machinery, I verily believe, that, in the main conduct of it—with those infirmities which ever cleave to every human effort, and not to advert to which would only weaken testimony—there is a singleness of aim, and a simplicity of purpose, to use to the utmost the means entrusted to the Society, for the great work of making the salvation of Christ known through the earth; and that nothing is by the Conductors of your Society, knowingly, allowed, in any way beside its great and professed object, to spend all its resources in diffusing the Gospel of Christ through the world.

For twenty-two years the Society had the constant and unremitted exertions, almost day and night, as I peculiarly can and ought to bear witness, of the sound judgment, enlarged wisdom, and entire devotedness of that revered and beloved Brother whom I could so long call my Fellow-labourer, and who, had his health permitted it, would have been standing here before you this night. We may well magnify that grace which raised him up to be among the Founders, and, for such a lengthened period, the chief human Architect of our Institution; and who has for eight years since continued to us the blessing of his experience, counsel, and prayers.

Nor can I here but gratefully notice the proof which we have had of our Heavenly Father's goodness in India, the most important sphere of our foreign labours, in the assistance given on the spot by the Corresponding Committee of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; and by pious Chaplains of the East-India Company, and others, who have from the beginning fostered our Missions. The very trials which we have had by the deaths of those who have aided us have served only the more to illustrate His grace, who has said, Lo! I am with you always to the end of the world[a]. We see this in the raising up of a series of Bishops, who have all promoted our work;—Middleton, laying the foundation of important plans;—Heber, a friend of the Society, carrying them forward;—James, treading in the same steps;—and Turner, a yet more attached friend, succeeding him;—and now one who has for nearly thirty years been one of our warmest friends and supporters, to whom we owed an able defence of the Society in the day of its need, is going to his responsible and arduous office, as Bishop of Calcutta. May the blessing of the Most High prosper his work, and spare him for lengthened and enlarged usefulness!

There is one of the secret springs of our Society little known to the world, to which I look back with peculiar delight and thankfulness to our God—the Religious Exercises on Saturday Evenings at the Society's House. Often has God met us there: and, if a blessing has indeed rested on the Society, we may well glorify Him for the grace given in special connexion with the many prayers there and elsewhere offered.

But while bearing this testimony to the past, we may still ask, Who, that has been connected with this work, does not feel and confess, that if he had had more of the mind of Christ[b], more of the grace prayed for in the text, he should have risen to a higher standard of devotedness, and a far more blessed influence? Do not I utter the best desire of every Secretary, every Member of a Committee, every Teacher, every Student, and every Missionary, when, in their names, and in the Apostolic words, I entreat you, Brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified! [c]?

Let the Lord of Life and Glory, then, still more plentifully shed upon us the Holy Spirit; and then that blessed union of judgment and affection, which has often cheered our hearts both in deliberation and in action, would be granted to us in the fullest measure; and the Secretaries and Conductors of our Society would have still more largely, in the various perplexities which arise, those gifts of judgment to discern the right course, wisdom to know the right season, promptness to act, firmness to carry forward, and love to execute all the will and work of the Lord. Let the Prince and Saviour [d] of the Church plentifully pour His grace upon us, and our Institution at Islington would be more than its most ardent projectors ever anticipated—a School of the Prophets, each filled with the unction of the Holy One [e]. Let the heavenly light shine more fully upon our Missionaries and Labourers; and at every Station would be men like John the Baptist, each in his sphere a burning and a shining light [f]. Let the Pentecostal season be renewed in answer to the prayers of the Church; and we should cease to count our converts by thousands:—they would be as the stars of the sky in multitude; and, as the sand which is by the sea-shore, innumerable [g].

I conclude my Discourse by directing your attention to the immense importance of three practical points, which may be gathered from our text—PRAYER, DEVOTEDNESS, INFLUENCE.

1. PRAYER.

The success of Missions is impossible to man. All people will walk every one in the name of his god.—Hath a nation changed their gods, which yet are no gods [h]? Who shall awaken one slumbering church to the requisite zeal and love? Who can make one chosen vessel to bear the name of Christ before the Heathen [i]? Who can open one door of utterance? Who can convert one soul? All is to man as impossible as to create a world. But prayer brings in another power than man's. Prayer makes God our bosom friend. Prayer tells God all our weakness and impossibilities, and asks His interposition. Prayer, in faith, takes hold of Omnipotence, and wields and directs Almighty energies: and just as the spirit of prayer rises or falls in the Church, so is the rise or fall of success in Missions. I exhort, therefore, that, first of of all, prayer, supplications, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men[a]. It is my deliberate conviction, that Christians at large do not yet so feel the magnitude of those subjects which have now been brought before them, as duly to abound in intercessory prayer. We bless God for the grace given to His Church on our late National Fast; but the Church is not so habitually in the posture of prayer before her God, as the peculiarity of the times demands. Meetings among Christians for social prayer are not so universal as they ought to be. Though we cannot say there is none that calleth upon Thy Name, there is none that stirreth up himself to lay hold on Thee[b]; yet the rich reserve of all the promises is still to be given to the prayers of the Church. May our God bestow on us a far larger measure of fervent effectual prayer[c]! then we shall receive the extended blessing. May the alarming diminution of nearly 6000*l.* in our income last year send us more simply to God! The prayer of the Church precedes the enlargement of the Church; and the more grace God bestows, the more the receiver thirsts and pants, wrestles and pleads, for its widest diffusion. May each one of us, then, have grace to take up the determination, For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth[d]. Then shall we behold, manifesting itself in the new and spiritual creation, that secret and mysterious, but omnipotent and universal energy, which we see at this season in the natural world; where every field and every garden, every tree and every shrub, is obeying the bidding of our Almighty Father, and is now bursting forth with life and verdure, with richest blossoms and most abundant promise. Oh! when shall it be thus in the moral world? When God gives to His Church the spirit of prayer:—I will yet for this be inquired of by the House of Israel, to do it for them[e].

2. DEVOTEDNESS.—To prayer must be joined DEVOTEDNESS. It is the righteous man's fervent effectual prayer that availeth much[f]. Brethren, let each ask himself, "Am I wholly devoted to Christ?" He is King of kings, and Lord of lords. All power in heaven and earth is His. He cometh, He cometh to judge the earth[g]. He is on his way to His everlasting kingdom. The signs of His approach manifest themselves. Popery is shaking to its base; Mahomedanism is crumbling in weakness; Idolatry and Infidelity cannot stand before the brightness of His truth. His enemies are destroying each other. He shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel[h]. Already His judgments are abroad in the earth: let us then now heartily join ourselves to the Lord, in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten[i]. Now is especially the time for decision of character. Oh, hesitate no longer between Christ and the world! Is OUR eye single for our Master? Is our ONE desire for His mercy, His blessing, His manifested favour? If the eye be single, the whole body shall be full of light[k]. Conformity to the world is the palsy of the Church. May God preserve us from the double-minded desire to serve Him and mammon; and make us decided on the Lord's side[l]!

We shall be devoted, as we partake of grace. It is the love of Christ that constrains us, not to live to ourselves, but for Him that died for us and rose again[m]. The highest, the most truly blessed state of man, is a life wholly surrendered to the Lord, and every thing we have entirely dedicated to Him. Is all, then, we have, the Lord's? Are our time, our knowledge, our talents, our property, all consecrated to Christ? Do we spend our income just as we believe that our Divine Master wishes it to be spent? We must soon stand kingdom shall never be destroyed: it shall break in pieces, and consume others, but it shall stand for ever[a]. Here is an ark, that shall ride in safety over a ruined world. The family of God have entered;—the door is still open;—we beseech you enter in with them! Decidedly join the people of God! Confess boldly Christ our Saviour; and help us to sound out, to the whole earth, the last invitation of the Spirit and of the Church: The Spirit and the Bride say, Come! And let him that heareth, say, Come! And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely[b]. For the kingdom of Christ is the only ultimately conquering and triumphant kingdom; the people of Christ are the only permanently useful, happy, and blessed people. And the kingdom, and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom, under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom: and all dominions shall serve and obey Him[c].

before Him. Let your loins, then, be girded about, and your lights burning; and ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their Lord[a]. We must speedily give account of ourselves to Him. Is that account much in our remembrance, controlling and directing all our expenditure? This, our principle of devotedness, extensively pervading only the present supporters of the Society, would soon sufficiently augment our income. The felt privilege, "All that I have belongs to Christ, and may be used for Him," would curtail many a vain expense, and vastly enlarge that only secure wealth, the treasure which you have in heaven[b]. If devotedness more characterized those of us who are in the Ministry, our Missions would not be languishing year after year, for want of Labourers like Brainerd and Swartz, Buchanan and Martyn, of past days. We aim at principles: we plead, Ye are not your own, for ye are bought with a price[c]. The Lord hath need of yours now[d]. Oh! if Christ, and His cause and kingdom, really had your whole mind, this congregation alone might rescue our Society from all its difficulties, and open up innumerable fresh channels for the waters of life, through many a barren heathen land. Oh that the grace of God may thus be bestowed upon you! THOU, who hast access to our innermost spirit—who movest every secret affection, and whose is all our gold, and silver, and time, and talents—incline each will, and move each heart freely to give Thee of thine own[e]! We plead with Thee for each other! Bestow this grace upon us, to abound in riches of liberality[f], for Thine own cause and for Thine own glory!

As prayer and devotedness are given to the Church, its blessed influence will be fully manifested. I proceed, then, to consider my last practical point.

3. INFLUENCE.

Devotedness relates more immediately to our personal character and conduct towards God. Influence is the combined effect of all we are and do on our fellow-creatures, not only at present, but hereafter, and even for ever.

The talent of influence is one of prodigious power over our fellow-men; and it is exceedingly important to attain that distinct view of a salutary influence which our text suggests. That which gives the most beneficial influence is not, as many are ready to suppose, rank or station, or abundance of riches, activity of exertion, or talents of mind, or depth of learning, or numbers associated with us. Influential in various degrees as are all these, the influence flowing from the grace of God is a vastly superior capacity of imparting blessedness to others. What is this grace? It is the favour sought in our text; it is faith, hope, and love; it is meekness, gentleness, and self-denial; it is spirituality, devotion, heavenly-mindedness; it is the salt of the earth in its full savour: the light of the world[g], burning clear and bright; it is our working with God, and God's dwelling in us. It is, in short, God's being merciful to us, and blessing us and shining upon us, that makes His way known upon earth, and His saving health among all nations. You may do something by your own devotedness, but you will do inexpressibly more by the influence of that devotedness. Devotedness is but the first seed—influence is the whole future produce. Look at St. Paul. Thousands may possibly have been the converts of Paul's personal ministry, but his influence has extended to millions after millions: it has reached every Christian in each successive age, and is boundless and lasting as eternity. May God inspire all our hearts with devotedness, by opening to our minds its full, its beneficial, its eternal influence! We inquire not, Have you much or little property, much rank or none? There is something higher and superior, that alone gives an eternally beneficial influence—even the constant daily working out of devotedness to the Lord, in the self-denying exercise of every Christian grace and temper.

[a] Luke xii. 35, 36. [b] Matt. vi. 20. [c] 1 Cor. vi. 19, 20.
[d] Matt. xxi. 3. [e] 1 Chron. xxix. 14. [f] 2 Cor. viii. 1, 2.

The times are stormy and agitating. The kingdoms of the world are heaving to and fro, with all the convulsions of a mighty earthquake: every thing else is moving, and shaking, and breaking up. But there is a kingdom that cannot be moved. Receive that kingdom; and have grace to serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear[h]. This kingdom shall never be destroyed: it shall break in pieces, and consume others, but it shall stand for ever[a]. Here is an ark, that shall ride in safety over a ruined world. The family of God have entered;—the door is still open;—we beseech you enter in with them! Decidedly join the people of God! THE ANNUAL MEETING,

HELD MAY 1, 1832,

AT EXETER HALL, STRAND.

REPORT,

&c. &c.

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society desire to commence their Report of its Proceedings during another year with a grateful acknowledgment of their Heavenly Father's goodness, in having for thirty-two years watched over and sustained the Society, and vouchsafed to it many evidences of His blessing. While they call on those who are associated in this great work to unite with them in thanksgivings to God for His past mercies, they would invite them to take encouragement for the future; and to cherish the assurance, that He who has hitherto been with them will be with them still, sustaining and guiding the Society amidst the trials and dangers which attend its course, and rendering the counsels and labours of His servants instrumental to the accomplishment of His own will, and subservient to His own glory.

The Committee will now lay before their friends a concise view of the operations of the Society during the year just closed; referring them for further information to the Society's Monthly Publication, the Church Missionary Record.

The joy, with which we are accustomed to meet on occasions like the present, has not unfrequently been diminished by the absence of some of those respected Fathers and beloved Brethren, whose counsels, and labours, and prayers have been united with our own. Last year we missed from among us one of the venerable founders of the Society, the Rev. Basil Woodd, whose zeal for its objects, and affection towards its Members, continued unabated to his dying hour. On the present occasion, we have to deplore the removal of another of the Society's early and most active friends, Mr. W. M. Forster. His heart was devoted to the cause which it is the object of the Society to promote; and those who, from personal acquaintance, knew his unaffected piety, and the value of his Christian experience and counsels, deeply feel the loss which the Society has thus sustained.

The Committee, desirous of testifying their affectionate esteem for their late colleague, unanimously adopted, and placed on their Minutes, the following Resolution:—

That the Committee, while they desire cheerfully to acquiesce in that dispensation of Divine Providence which has removed from them their beloved associate, Mr. William Martin Forster, are anxious to record their grateful sense of the goodness of God, in having, for fifteen years, vouchsafed to the Society the benefit of the counsel and co-operation of their departed Brother; whose regular attendance at the various Meetings of the Committee, involving the abstraction of much valuable time from his professional occupations, and whose uniformly Christian spirit abundantly testified how largely he had partaken of the grace of that Saviour whom he served. He rests from his labours, and his works do follow him.

The Committee would also gratefully commemorate the Divine goodness in the help which the Society has for many years received from another friend, now called to his rest, the Rev. Henry C. Ridley, Rector of Hambledon, whose warm and friendly heart was rejoiced to assist in the cause of Missions, and whose unwearied exertions in the neighbourhood in which he resided were a gratifying specimen of what a Parochial Minister may do, even in a retired sphere, towards the promotion of the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Fifteen new Associations have been formed during the year. The Society is greatly indebted to the zeal and activity of Major Mackworth, in diffusing information relative to its proceedings, and forming Associations, in aid of its objects, in an extensive district in South Wales. The Committee, deeply sensible of the benefits which the Society has derived from his assistance at their councils, when resident in London, and from his exertions in the country, have requested him to allow his name to be placed among those of the Life Governors; a measure in which they confidently anticipate the cordial approbation of every Member of the Society.

The Committee have the pleasure to state, that the Right Rev. the Bishop of Calcutta has accepted the office of Vice-Patron, and the Right Hon. Thomas Erskine that of Vice-President of the Society.

The Committee will now notice some changes in the official management of the Society's affairs.

Among these is the discontinuance of the valuable services of Professor Lee. Unable any longer, in connexion with other duties, to attend at the Institution at Islington, the Professor very kindly offered to give gratuitous instructions to any of the Students who might be able to attend him, either at the University or in the country. The Committee could not allow this occasion to pass, without an expression of their cordial regard for an individual whose services they highly appreciate, and they unanimously adopted the following Resolution:—

That in closing that official connexion with Professor Lee which has so long existed, the Committee gratefully record the high sense which they entertain of the important services, which, under the Blessing of God, he has, through so many years, rendered to the Church Missionary Society, by cheerfully and zealously applying to the advancement of its objects those literary and philological attainments by which he is so eminently distinguished.

Since the last Anniversary, the Rev. F. Leicester, who for some time past has been occupied, with much advantage to the Society, in visiting the Associations, has found it necessary, much to the regret of the Committee, to relinquish his situation as Visiting Secretary. He has been succeeded by the Rev. Jonathan Woodward; but the Committee lament to state, that their endeavours to obtain a second Visiting Secretary have hitherto been unsuccessful; and it has, in consequence, been found exceedingly difficult, and in some cases impracticable, adequately to supply the wants of the Associations.

It is desirable to notice another change which is contemplated during the course of the present year The Clerical Secretary having, for time past, found the discharge of his official duties interfere with the claims of his family on his time and attention, had been led to the determination of relinquishing his situation, and retiring into the country; and a sphere of usefulness having been very unexpectedly opened to him, it is his intention, towards the close of the year, to terminate his official connexion with the Society. The Rev. W. Jowett, whose state of health, after a third trial of the climate and a service of fifteen years, does not admit of his resuming his labours in the Mediterranean, will, when the present Clerical Secretary retires, enter on the duties of the office.

It may be proper here to observe, that it is not intended to alter the Regulation noticed in the last Report, by which the services of the Clerical Secretary, in visiting the Associations, are dispensed with; but that, in order to meet the wants of the Associations, the present Secretary will employ a portion of his time, while he retains his official connexion with the Society, among the Associations; Mr. Jowett, during his absence, supplying his place at the office.

INSTITUTION.

In the Institution at Islington, there were, on the 1st of May, 1831, Seventeen Students: the number at present is Nineteen. In the course of this period, four new Candidates have been finally admitted into residence; and also four Students from the Seminary at Bâsle, who have, since their admission, obtained the Orders of Deacon. The offers of five Candidates who spent a short time at the Institution have, from various reasons, been declined: and one, who has been registered on probation, has not yet come to reside. Five Candidates, four of whom are Clergymen, have left for their respective Stations; viz. two for North India; one for South India; one, with his wife, for New Holland; and one for Sierra Leone.

Another, of great promise, after admission to Holy Orders, was disabled by a serious disorder from going abroad, and has returned to his friends.

The Committee regret to state, that no resident Tutor has been procured, although repeated efforts have been made to obtain a competent Assistant. They have however the pleasure of reporting, that two Gentlemen, who have successively assisted the Principal, by a daily attendance of some hours, in the Literary department, have performed their part in the most satisfactory manner. The Rev. John Hambleton, Minister of the Chapel of Ease to St. Mary's, Islington, is at present supplying the place of Tutor, with that advantage to the Students which was to be expected from his approved abilities, knowledge, and piety.

FUNDS.

It is with much concern that the Committee report a serious defalcation in the Income of the Society. The Receipts for the year ending March 31, 1831, were 46,584*l.* 16*s.* 7*d.*; those for the year ending the 31st of March last, were 40,751*l.* 18*s.*: consequently the deficiency in the year just ended amounted to 5832*l.* 18*s.* 7*d.* Of this deficit, 633*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.* is found under the head of Benefactions: 525*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* under that of Legacies: and the large sum of 4846*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* under that of Association Contributions. An inconsiderable increase is found under some other heads, amounting together to 172*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.*

On examining the Accounts of the Association, it appears that some of them, which have been accustomed to make their remittances prior to the 31st of March in each year, and which therefore properly belong to the year 1831-2, did not remit their proceeds in the present instance till after that date. The sums from Associations thus circumstanced probably amount to from 1500*l.* to 1800*l.* If this view of the case should turn out to be correct, the real income of the Society for the year 1831-32 may be taken at about 42,500*l.*

On the other hand, it affords the Committee satisfaction to state, that the rate of the expenditure generally has been rather below the amount at which it was estimated. The actual charge of the year just ended, amounting to 47,173*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.*, has indeed exceeded the average rate of expenditure, as it had been anticipated that it would do; that for the year 1830--31 having fallen below the average rate, amounting to no more than 43,941*l.* 7*s.* 9*d.* This variation in the actual expenditure of the Society from year to year is to be accounted for from the uncertain period at which the bills drawn from the Missions, some of them at long dates, become payable in this country; so that it unavoidably happens, that in some years a disproportionately large amount, and in others a disproportionately small amount, becomes actually payable between the 1st of April and the 31st of March, the period constituting the Society's financial year. In the year 1830--31 an unduly small amount of the Bills on account of the South-India Mission became payable prior to the 31st of March: in the past year, an unduly large amount became payable anterior to the 1st of April, on account of that of the Ceylon and of the Australasia Missions.

After making every allowance, however, for the circumstances above adverted to, it is not to be concealed that the income of the Society, including all that can be considered to belong to the year 1831--32, falls short from two to three thousand pounds of the expenditure to which it is pledged, in order to maintain its existing establishments on their present scale. The situation of the Society is therefore one of serious and urgent difficulty; since it will leave the Committee, to whom the management of the Society's affairs may be confided in the ensuing year, no other alternative but the relinquishment or contraction of some branch of Missionary operations now actually in progress, unless means be promptly found to raise the Society's income to a level with its expenditure. The actual abandonment or material curtailment of a Mission or Station must at any time be a most distressing measure; but it would be peculiarly so at a period when, notwithstanding several circumstances of an extremely painful nature, the Divine Blessing manifestly rests on the Society's Missions. Having thus disclosed the state of the Society's finances, the Committee, in surrendering their charge into the hands of their constituents, earnestly commend this grave subject to the serious consideration of its members and friends, trusting that interests so sacred and important will not be permitted to suffer for want of adequate pecuniary aid: while far larger sums are expended on objects of temporal advantage, or even of mere pleasure and amusement.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

SHORTLY after the last Anniversary, three of the Brethren engaged in the West-Africa Mission, the Rev. Messrs. Raban, Betts, and Haensel, returned to Europe, for the benefit of their health. An opportunity was thus afforded the Committee, of obtaining, by personal conference, full and accurate information as to the state of the Mission, and to suggest such measures as appeared advisable for the furtherance of the Society's objects in Africa. These Brethren, having, through the Divine mercy, derived benefit from a temporary residence in Europe, took their departure in the autumn, and have again entered on their labours.

The means of imparting spiritual instruction to the adult and youthful population at Sierra Leone have been steadily pursued during the year, as far as the limited number of Labourers would admit. The average number of persons attending Public Worship is the same as it has been for some time past: the Communicants are 683 in number, and the conduct of most of them is reported to be consistent with their profession. In reference to the means of grace and to the want of that living power which can alone render them effectual, one of the Missionaries writes—

> There is no lack of the means: we have our Schools for Adults, as well as for Children: on three days of the week we hold Religious Meetings for the instruction of different classes of people: on a fourth we have public Evening Service, in addition to the Sunday Services. All that appears wanting is, the breath of the Spirit, to infuse a life-giving energy into them. Come then, O Breath! and breathe upon these slain, that they may live! May the Spirit be poured out upon us from on high! then shall the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

In the CHRISTIAN INSTITUTION at Fourah Bay, which continues under Mr. Haensel's care, there are Twenty-one Students. With a view to enlarge the usefulness of the Institution, it has been opened to the reception of a small number of Colony-born Youths at an earlier age than that at which the Students have hitherto been admissible.

In the Schools under the direction of the Society, there were, in October, 1338 Children, and in the Sunday Schools 684; but the Missionaries have subsequently felt themselves called upon to relinquish the charge of the Liberated-African Schools, which has occasioned a large diminution in the number of Scholars.

The want of an adequate supply of Labourers continues to be severely felt; and it is still a subject of humiliation, as well as of regret, that those who, under the fostering care of a professedly Christian Nation, have been brought together in the Colony of Sierra Leone, should not have a sufficient number of faithful Teachers to guide them into the way of peace. It appears, by a statement contained in a recent Report of one of the Stations, that the worship of idols is not yet entirely eradicated from among the Liberated Africans.

The duty of making impartial statements compels the Committee to remark, that there are some very painful circumstances connected with this Mission. Difficulties have been adverted to, which led the Missionaries to relinquish the charge of the Liberated-African Children. At present, it would be premature to enter into a full statement of these circumstances. These, however, are of little importance, when compared with others which have arisen from within. One individual has unhappily openly fallen into sin; and has, in consequence, been separated from the Society. The Committee venture to indulge a hope that he has been brought to repentance; but they at the same time fully concur in the view taken by the Missionaries, who felt that the sacred cause, to which they have devoted themselves, demanded the separation from the Mission of one who had so grievously dishonoured his Christian profession.

Trials of this kind greatly afflict and humble us. Satan triumphs, and the enemies of the Lord blaspheme. May they stir us up to a holy watchfulness and distrust of ourselves! and, especially, may they lead us to the mercy-seat of our God, there to beseech Him to have compassion upon Africa, to remove from among those who are labouring for the welfare of her unhappy sons every stumbling-block, and, above all, that He would cause His face to shine upon her, and visit her with the blessings of salvation!

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

THE retirement of the Rev. William Jowett from the active duties in which he has been so long and so usefully employed, in connexion with the Mediterranean Mission, has been already noticed. The superintendence of the Malta Press has devolved on the Rev. C. Schlienz, whose health has been materially improved by a visit to Germany last year.

In consequence of the difficulties mentioned in the last Report, occasioned by the introduction of Images, by the Greek Authorities, into the Schools at Syra, the field of the Society's labours in that quarter became very circumscribed. It was also stated, that it was intended that Dr. Korck should remove to Corfu, which presented a favourable opening for his exertions. A different view, however, having been taken by Dr. Korck in reference to this subject, he has subsequently relinquished his connexion with the Society.

The Infants' School at Syra, the only one in that island under the exclusive controul of the Missionaries, has made satisfactory progress under Mr. Hildner; and, Syra not furnishing scope for the labours of more than one Missionary, Mr. and Mrs. Jetter have removed to Asia Minor. They arrived there just at the time when the Plague was raging in Smyrna and the surrounding country, and took up their residence at Boujah, near Smyrna. Here Mr. Jetter has had Divine Service on the Sunday; at which all, who were so disposed, were invited to attend: and, as soon as the Plague had a little subsided, he and Mrs. Jetter opened a Girls' School, which is attended by between 60 and 70 Children. There is also a Boys' School at Boujah, which is, in some degree, under Mr. Jetter's superintendence.

Among other communications, Mr. Jetter has forwarded to the Committee a petition from Thyatira, transmitted to him by Mr. Lewis, a Missionary connected with the Society for promoting Christianity among the Jews, signed by the Archbishop of Ephesus and three others, and by three of the principal inhabitants of Thyatira, requesting, on behalf of 350 families dwelling in the town of Thyatira, that two Schools might be established in that place. It is highly encouraging to observe the eager desire manifested in Asia Minor for the blessings of education; but it is also painful to reflect, that the reduced state of the Society's finances entirely precludes it from listening to any application of this kind, however urgent; and from entering on any new ground, however promising.

After the Plague had subsided in Smyrna, the city was visited in October with another dreadful scourge, the Cholera Morbus. It commenced among the Jews; and subsequently extended to the Greeks, Armenians, and Franks. The richer part of the Jewish population on this occasion quitted Smyrna, and took with them the only medical man whom they had in the city. On this occasion, a Committee was formed of the Europeans for affording medical assistance to the poor, who had been abandoned to die without any one to come to their relief; and in this work of mercy Mr. Lewis and Mr. Jetter took an active part. Mr. Jetter thus notices his occupations:—

I am out from morning to noon, with a little basket in my hand, giving medicines to the poor suffering people; and, latterly, my whole time has been taken up in attending on the sick. I have had already four cases of Cholera here: one proved fatal, in which I was called too late; but the rest, through God's grace, are doing well. Thanks be to God, notwithstanding all the fatigue I have to undergo, I am very well! Indeed, in the midst of danger, we are graciously preserved!

Mr. Jetter anticipates that the confidence with which he has been received, when endeavouring to afford relief to the body, during the late visitation, will dispose the people to listen to him when addressing them on the more important subject of the soul, and endeavouring to direct them to the Heavenly Physician.

The Missionaries stationed at Caïro have witnessed a similarly affecting scene, from the ravages of the same disorder. Mr. Krusé's account of it, and of the loss of one of his children, was given in the Church Missionary Record for November.

The last Report announced the arrival of Messrs. Gobat and Kugler in Abyssinia; and the favourable manner in which, under the providence of God, they had been received by Sebagadis, the Ras of Tigré. Shortly after their arrival in Tigré, Mr. Gobat proceeded to Gondar, the capital of the Province of Amhara, for the furtherance of the objects of the Mission; taking with him a supply of the Gospels in Amharic. The readiness with which these have been received by the people appears from the following extract of a Letter addressed to his Sister:—

If I had a thousand copies of the Bible, I could advantageously dispose of them; but in Abyssinia, and especially at this season of scarcity, the Bible must be given; for the Abyssinians really have not the means of buying. For several weeks past, persons have been continually coming to me, to ask for a Gospel. I have distributed them in all parts of Abyssinia; and I find that in many places they have been copied. At first, they did not set much value upon it, because it was not the Ethiopic Gospel, the language in which they are accustomed to read. When I found that, I gave six copies to the Etchegua, the Chief of the Monks, to distribute them as he pleased; and since he has disposed of two copies, all who can read come to ask for them.

War breaking out soon after the Missionaries entered Abyssinia, and the whole country being thrown into disturbance, Mr. Gobat was detained at Gondar, not without many encouragements as to the objects of his Mission, till October, 1830, when he was enabled to join Mr. Kugler, at Adowah, in the Province of Tigré. Here he was subjected to a fresh trial, in the death of his devoted colleague, Mr. Kugler, on the 29th of the following December; and subsequently has been compelled, by the civil commotions which have distracted that unhappy country, to seek for safety to a place of refuge which a gracious Providence has seasonably provided for him.

In the midst of these afflictive events, there are some remarkable indications that the entrance of the Missionaries into Abyssinia has not been in vain. Mr. Kugler departed in the peace of God; and the manifestation of divine grace in his dying hours so deeply impressed the by-standers, as to encourage the hope that on some of them a salutary and saving effect may have been produced. In reference to this, Mr. Gobat writes:—

The last evening was, I hope, for the edification of many who witnessed his death; for they all said, that they had never seen a man die in such full confidence in the Saviour. A Mussulman, who was present, said, in the presence of all, that he had seen many persons in the hour of death; that four had died in his arms; but that he had never seen true faith till this day.

Another encouraging fact, connected with Mr. Gobat's proceedings, is the friendly manner in which he was received by Sebagadis, on his return to Adowah. Mr. Gobat writes:—

When I arrived at Adowah on the 17th of October, I found Sebagadis, who was then going to war. He received me in every respect as his equal. We passed two evenings alone together: on the last of which he wept almost all the time. When we separated, he said to me: "I love you; not because you are a great man, nor because you are a white man, but because you love the Lord, whom I wish to love with all my heart. I pray you to be my brother, and to consider meas your brother. "No," said I, "I will be your son, and you shall be my father." At this he kissed my hand, weeping, and saying, "I am not worthy to be called your father; but I will be a faithful brother to you." Thus we parted for ever.

One circumstance in the conduct of Sebagadis deserves to be recorded. On Sunday the 13th of February, the hostile troops passed the Tacazze without resistance, because he was unwilling to fight on a Sunday. A battle was fought on the 14th, in which Sebagadis was taken prisoner; and he was killed on the following day.

On a review of these events, Mr. Gobat writes on the 25th of February—

My Br. Kugler is no more: my best friend and second father, is no more. Aichinger is the only friend who shares with me the grief of seeing Abyssinia plunged into every kind of misery. There is not one about us who desires to hear us sing the songs of Zion. Nevertheless, the Eternal, our Father, reigns: it is He who inflicts the wound, and who binds it up. Can evil happen to a country which He has not decreed? And if the evil which presses on this country comes from the Lord, it is perhaps only a fatherly chastisement, which shall hereafter prove an occasion of joy to His children.

INDIA.

THE friends of India generally, in common with the Members of the Church Missionary Society, must have been greatly affected with the intelligence that another Bishop of Calcutta had been removed from his labours within little more than a year and a half after he had entered on the arduous and extensive labours of his diocese.

Three years only have elapsed since we heard the voice of that eminent and devoted Servant of God addressing us at our Anniversary Meeting, with great effect, on the trials and difficulties of Missions, and on the encouragements connected with a work on which God has stamped the seal of His approbation. He is gone! and his departure is a trial deeply felt by those who knew and loved him at home, and by those who were aided by his counsels and encouraged by his example abroad. But our encouragements are not diminished: the great Pastor and Bishop ever lives and reigns: and, though instrument after instrument may, in the counsels of His sovereignty, be removed, His purposes shall be accomplished, and His work shall prosper.

At the first meeting of the Committee, after the intelligence of Bishop Turner's death had been received, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted:—

That the Committee deeply deplore the loss which the Church of Christ has sustained in the death of the late Right Rev. John Matthias, Lord Bishop of Calcutta, whose combination of high literary attainments, with great devotedness to the service of his Heavenly Master, eminently qualified him for the exalted and arduous station which he occupied; and that, while the Committee bow with submission to the will of Almighty God in this dispensation, they desire to record their grateful sense of the extensive benefits which the Society has derived, and which it may yet anticipate, from the judicious counsels of the late Bishop, at the Meetings of its Corresponding Committees in India—from his pastoral exhortations to the Missionaries, and that paternal and social intercourse with them which will long live in their affections—and from the bright example of fidelity, zeal, and unwearied labour which he has bequeathed to those who survive.

The fact, that the Protestant Church in India has lost four successive Bishops in the short space of nine years, so deeply impressed the Committee with the obligation which is laid on those in Authority to divide this immense Diocese, that they adopted a Memorial—copies of which have been presented to the Right Hon. Earl Grey, First Lord Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury; to the Right Hon. Charles Grant, President of the Board of Controul; and to the Chairman of the Court of Directors—praying that the number of Bishops may be increased.

Before they proceed to a brief notice of the Society's Indian Missions, the Committee cannot but congratulate the Members of the Society, that the appointment to the See of Calcutta should have fallen on an individual who, for nearly thirty years, has evinced his steady attachment to the Society's objects, and taken an active part in its affairs. His presence forbids their saying more, than merely conveying to him their assurance, that he will go forth to his important duties with their prayers that he may be abundantly enriched, by the Giver of all good, with every gift and grace which may be needful for his high station, and that he may be the instrument of a large spiritual blessing to the rising Church in India.

NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

THE Committee have not had it in their power to supply all the Stations in North India with Missionaries; but they are looking forward to four of the Students in the Institution, now in Deacon's Orders, very shortly proceeding to this Mission.

The Report, which was read at the Anniversary Meeting of the Corresponding Committee at Calcutta on the 26th of last July, announces the gratifying fact, that 67 persons have been admitted to Baptism during the year, whose conduct affords satisfactory proof of their sincerity.

At Burdwan and Culna, under the Ministry of Mr. Deerr, there is a small band of Native Christians evidencing the power of the Gospel by a consistent life. Of these, Mr. Deerr writes—

> They are increasing, with little exception, in Christian love and affection toward each other. The divisions, on account of the variety of Caste, which they formerly had, are ceasing; and good-will toward each other, and harmony, are apparently on the increase. They are industrious, and rise in the estimation of the Heathen; and I have not to complain of any offence either toward each other or toward me, one instance only excepted.

Mr. Weitbrecht, who is stationed at Mirzapore, adjoining Calcutta, expressed his gratification at the state of the Converts when at Burdwan, and which he thus describes:—

> It is true, we could wish to see in our Christians here at Mirzapore, and likewise at Burdwan, more zeal and love working by faith: they feel not warmly enough for their benighted Heathen countrymen. The Hindoo has a natural apathy, and indolent manners, which are in some degree to be observed in all Converts; and if we endeavour to measure Religion by the scale of Christianity which we bring from home, we must meet with disappointed expectations. The fact is, we must judge of them comparatively; and duly consider what these people were before, and what they are now. If we compare their life and conduct with that of our surrounding heathen neighbours, then we see a striking contrast; and it becomes obvious, at once, that a work of Divine Grace is going on in their hearts. The Heathen live almost always in strife and quarrels, especially the women; and we can scarcely drive out without seeing one or more families in uproar and discord. Our Christians live together in peace and unity: I never heard strife among them. The Heathen are unclean and dirty in their huts and persons: our Christians clean their cottages, and appear decently clothed: they are sincere, and speak the truth every one with his neighbour; while the Idolaters are never to be trusted: a European must have his eyes wide open, if he will not daily be deceived and robbed by them. This contrast might be carried on to a great length, to shew the superiority of a Converted Hindoo to him who is still in the darkness of Heathenism; but I only point out a few striking instances, by which you may see that our work in the Lord is not in vain; and that, notwithstanding that which is still to be desired, we have much cause to be thankful for what the Lord has done here.

The plan of making excursions in the neighbouring District for the purpose of publishing the Gospel to the inhabitants has been adopted by Mr. Deerr as well as by Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. Bowley. In reference to the importance of these excursions for the purpose of awakening the attention of the people to the great concern of salvation, Mr. Bowley writes—

The sheep of Christ are scattered abroad in the world amongst Hindoos and Mussulmans; and these sheep must hear the Shepherd's voice, and, in hearing, shall follow. Unless we see Missionaries pursuing this course more generally, no extensive work of conversions must be immediately expected: unless we go to the Heathen, we must not expect they will come to us: unless we go out and invite them, the distance is too great to warrant any expectation of their seeking after us, or the Religion which we profess.

In the course of the year, Mr. Bowley, accompanied by two Native Catechists, Kurrum Messeeh and Thakoor, visited Lucknow and Cawnpore. A full account of his proceedings is given in the Record for January.

The importance of Native Agency has long been felt, and frequently acknowledged, by those whose attention has been directed to Missionary Proceedings; and there is great reason to be thankful to God for the benefits which have already resulted from the labours of the Native Catechists connected with the Society.

A gratifying account of the state of the Schools at Burdwan will be found in the Record for January; where the answers given by some of the children, at an examination before Archdeacon Corrie and other friends of the Society, are detailed. The number of children in the Schools, in the North-India Mission, is 2662.

The Committee cannot dismiss this subject without noticing the case of a Hindoo Girl educated by Mrs. Wilson, and, with her Parents, baptized in 1826. For two years she acted as Head Monitor in a School containing from 150 to 200 Girls. On leaving Calcutta, some time ago, for the benefit of her health, she was entreated by Mrs. Wilson to allow no day to pass without endeavouring to direct some poor heathen to the Saviour of sinners. She appears to have been most scrupulously attentive to this request, taking every opportunity of conversing with the heathen women who came to the house where she resided, and seating herself near the boundary-wall, every evening, to speak with them as they passed backward and forward to the river. Of this young woman Mrs. Wilson writes—

Mary Anne has just recovered from the small-pox. For some days she had a strong fever on her, and was obliged to keep her couch; but she regularly rallied in the evening, and took her seat at the wall for the purpose above named. One day, however, she was too weak to leave her room; but, on a person's coming in to whom she had been accustomed to speak, she raised herself, and began to address her. Her friend being present, and seeing that the effort was painful and beyond her strength, requested her to keep quiet, promising to converse with the woman for her. Mary Anne fell back upon her couch, and remained some time silent: when raising herself again, and bursting into tears, with a look of real distress, she entreated to be allowed to speak herself; urging, as a reason, that, as she could not go out, she should otherwise have passed a whole day without directing a heathen sinner to the Redeemer.

By recent accounts from Mrs. Wilson, it appears that Native Female Education is making encouraging progress; and, at present, the only obstacle towards its becoming more widely extended, is the want of means.

SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

The Society has to deplore the loss of a most devoted and highly-honoured Minister of Christ in connexion with its South-India Mission, the Rev. James Ridsdale. He had been eleven years resident at Madras; and his Ministry had been greatly blessed among the European and Country-born population. He was attacked by Cholera about three o'clock in the afternoon, August 20, 1831: every thing was done for him that could be devised; but all in vain; he entered into his rest shortly after three o'clock the following morning. He could not say much, but he died in great peace.

At Madras, and three other places in the neighbourhood, Divine Service is regularly performed on the Sunday, and once during the week, by Mr. Schaffter and Mr. Dent, assisted by the Native Catechists. Besides these Services, the Missionaries have three Meetings during the week in their School-rooms at Madras, at which many Heathens and Roman Catholics are accustomed to attend, and which have been the means of awakening inquiry among them.

Mr. Schaffter and the Catechists are in the habit of making excursions every month to the neighbouring places, and usually find attentive hearers among the Heathen, Mahomedan, and Roman-Catholic population.

Mr. Winckler continues in charge of the Station at Pulicat, but speaks in not very favourable terms of the state of the Congregation and the Schools. After remarking on the importance of prayer being offered up by friends in England for the success of this great work, he adds—

I feel that, with all bustle and labour, nothing can be effected of a permanent nature, unless preceded, supported, and followed up by earnest prayers: therefore I have now begun to unite in prayer with the Catechist, or with any Assistant whom I send out in the villages. This strengthens them as well as us: and this I intend to do, God assisting, on every occasion.

When the late Bishop visited Madras, 73 individuals, in connexion with the Mission, received Confirmation from his Lordship. The Communicants at Madras and the Out-Stations are 83 in number.

The Rev. John Dewasagayam, whose Ordination was noticed in the last Report, gives the following general view of the Station at Mayaveram, where he continues to reside:—

Since we were stationed at Mayaveram, we have been made, by the blessing of the Lord, instruments of many Heathens, besides Mahomedans and Roman Catholics, becoming acquainted with our blessed Religion, and of the purity and superiority of the Bible; and we continue to meet daily with abundant opportunities for the same. The entrance of Brahmins and High-Caste Heathens, into our places of Worship, and their devoted behaviour during the Service, impress us deeply with the power of the Word of God. We continue to entreat earnestly the wisdom of the Lord to teach these immortal souls the one thing needful.

A steady friend of the Society, Mr. John Thomas, visited the Schools at Mayaveram last year, and carefully examined the Boys of the four Schools, under Heathen Masters and those in the Seminary: of these he does not give a satisfactory account; but of the Boys in the Compound School, who have had the benefit of constant instruction from the Rev. John Dewasagayam, he writes—

They could explain perfectly well the difference between the True and Living God and an Idol: they answered readily and intelligently several questions, as to the nature of sin, of good and evil: they had read and knew the contents of the Gospel; and although heathen lads, I should say that the light they had received would never be quenched. It may suit their purposes, in after-life, to profess Heathenism rather than embrace Christianity; but that they can ever be deluded by its absurdities, I should hold to be, in 99 cases out of 100, impossible. Schools, so taught, answer, and I should say more than answer, our highest anticipations: they are sapping Idolatry at its very root; and the whole Youths of a village so instructed would, I should say, be a field ready for the harvest.

The state of the Mission in Tinnevelly continues to call for abundant thanksgivings to God, who has so largely bestowed on it His blessing. Full particulars of it were given in the Society's Record of November; from which it appears, that, while many things are occurring to try the genuineness of the profession made by some who have renounced Idolatry, these very circumstances are a touchstone by which the faith of the real convert is proved and ascertained. At the end of 1830, the Congregations in 261 villages consisted of 2289 families or houses, containing 8138 souls; but comparing the present list with the Abstract prepared in July 1830, it seems that during the last six months there has been a decrease of 7 villages with 146 families, containing 257 souls. The actual deficiency is more than this; but is made up by the accession of new villages and families.

That the disappointment of worldly motives in embracing the outward form of Christianity, the neglecting to count the cost, the dread of persecution, and the force of deeply-rooted habits and superstitions where the grace of God had not influenced the heart, should have led many to fall away, cannot be a subject of surprise to him who is conversant with the Word of God. These trials, arising from the subtlety and malice of Satan and the corruption of the human heart, have been overruled for the manifestation of such as are approved of God, and have been made the occasions of exhibiting the glory of His grace.

The sufferings of the people are thus noticed by Mr. Rhenius:—

> In one instance, their enemies succeeded, with most crying injustice, in pulling down a whole village of 20 houses; and the people were exposed, for many days, to the open air. In another direction they had nearly succeeded in fixing upon some Christians the murder of a man; who, it was notorious, had been long ill, and died a natural death.

It should also be stated, that there are instances in which their right to their lands has been wantonly and cruelly disputed, their crops destroyed, and their persons maltreated. Notwithstanding these trials, Mr. Rhenius writes—

Still the power of Christ and His Gospel is apparent and spreading. While in a Congregation some are overcome by the enemy, the rest remain stedfast, and endure many afflictions; declaring that they will lose every thing, and even life itself, rather than return again to Heathenism.

To the general improvement in moral conduct, he thus bears his testimony:—

Wherever Christianity is established, there quarrelling, vile and abusive language, lying, cheating, &c. are greatly checked: instances of these things are still among them; but those who practise them are marked, and not considered as Christians. The improvement of the Congregations, on the whole, is noticed and acknowledged by the surrounding Heathen themselves.

Of this he gives the following instance:—

The Brahmins of a Heathen Village have requested us to accept a part of it for the formation of a Christian Village, with the express declaration, that all their Cultivators should be Christians; as Christians are more faithful and prompt in paying their dues to the Land-owner than the Heathen are. This is certainly very gratifying, and comfortable to our hearts.

The INSTITUTION, of which the Committee are happy to state that Mr. Fjellstedt is gone out to take charge, contains 34 Scholars; 11 of whom appear to be in earnest about spiritual things. One of the elder Students, about 18, died last year, having been eight years under instruction. His end is thus mentioned by Mr. Rhenius—

He died with much composure of mind, and hope in the glory of God, through our Lord Jesus Christ; affectionately exhorting his relations to turn and cleave to the Saviour with all their heart.

After noticing the various trials of the Mission, Mr. Rhenius remarks—

There is much room for encouragement and praise. The good work, on the whole, in every branch of it, is going on. Including the Schools, there are nearly 10,000 Natives under Christian Instruction by the Society. Idolatry is greatly on the decline.

It is the painful duty of the Committee to state, that some circumstances had occurred in the Syrian College at Cottayam, while under Mr. Morewood's care, which have led to the withdrawing from it of almost all the Students. In order to obtain the fullest possible information of all the circumstances connected with this afflictive occurrence, and of the existing state of things, the Committee have requested Mr. Lambrick, in conjunction with another friend of the Society, to proceed with all convenient despatch to Travancore, for the purpose of making minute inquiry into the facts of the case, and report thereon to the Committee.

The Committee are happy to state, that recent accounts have been received, by which it appears that the Students have returned.

A full account of the interesting Station at Cochin was given in the Record for March.

The Establishment on the Nilgherry Hills has been opened, under Mr. Morewood's superintendence.

WEST-INDIA MISSION.

The Rev. William Mitchell, with Mrs. Mitchell, has left this country, to resume his labours in the West-India Mission; and the Committee entertain the hope, that, on his arrival, it will be put on an effective footing. Ahmednuggur, which contains a considerable Mahomedan as well as Heathen population, has been fixed on as the head-quarters of the Mission.

CEYLON MISSION.

The hearts of the Missionaries in Ceylon were much refreshed and encouraged by the paternal counsels and conduct of their late beloved Diocesan, in the month of February last year. The Bishop visited the four Stations occupied by the Society in the island; and confirmed about 150 persons, who had been prepared by the Missionaries for the reception of that impressive rite. In reference to the Confirmation at Colombo, Mr. Selkirk writes, on the 24th of February—

This day the Confirmation of Candidates in the Native languages, Portuguese, Tamul, and Cingalese, took place at St. Paul's Church. Brother Lambrick read Prayers in Cingalese. This was the first time that the Cotta Translation of the Prayer-Book was ever used in any church in Colombo.

The Bishop's visit to Kandy is thus noticed by Mr. Browning:—

We were highly gratified last month (March) by a visit from the Bishop of Calcutta. He confirmed 36 persons belonging to my Congregations, and examined some of our Schools. We have cause for great thankfulness to the Father of Mercies, who has appointed such an Overseer to superintend the concerns of the Infant Church in India. May his valuable life long be spared! The Bishop justly remarked, when he had finished the examination of the children, that we had enough to encourage us, and nothing to elate us.

On occasion of his visiting Nellore, Mr. Knight writes—

We have just been cheered by a visit from our excellent Bishop. He reached Jaffna on Wednesday, the 13th instant, and remained among us over the following Sunday; delighting every one, but especially the Missionary Circle, by his condescension, Christian kindness, and affability. He entered deeply into every plan calculated to promote the best interests of the inhabitants; and we were much struck, considering how recently he arrived in the country, with the accuracy of his views on all subjects connected with the moral improvements of India. On Friday he visited and examined the Seminary of our American Brethren at Batticotta; and the next day came to Nellore, where he heard some of the Boys of the Out-Schools read in their own language, asked them a few questions by an Interpreter, and then examined some of the Classes of the Seminary, with which he appeared to be much pleased.

On Sunday he held a Confirmation in the Fort Church, at 7 o'clock in the morning, and preached at 11 o'clock. Great numbers came to hear his instructions; to witness the performance, for the first time in this place, of this primitive and simple rite; or to participate in the privilege thus afforded them, of publicly ratifying their Baptismal vow.

Mr. Knight adds—

We trust much good has been done by his Lordship's visit. The direct sanction which he gives to Missionaries and Missionary efforts; and the bright testimony which he leaves, wherever he goes, of fervent piety and disinterested attachment to the cause of his Divine Master; are such as cannot fail to promote the cause of True Religion. On the whole, it will not soon be forgotten that a Christian Bishop has visited Jaffna—that a Dignitary of our Church, worthy of the exalted station which he holds, has been among us. May his pious and devoted example be felt and imitated by all who bear the Christian name! and may we, especially, who sustain the sacred office of the Ministry, be thus excited more faithfully to tread in the steps of our Great Lord and Master!

The joy which the Missionaries felt on this occasion was, however, allayed by their apprehensions, too truly founded, lest he should not long be spared to them; and Mr. Trimnell, after noticing the Bishop's visit, thus writes:—

We regret that his Lordship's health appears to be in a declining state; so that we almost fear he will not be able to bear the climate of India long. His visit to Jaffna was in the hottest and most trying month in the year: he seemed to suffer much from a little exertion, and to be unable to bear the least exposure to the sun.

The general state of this Mission, in the preaching of the Gospel—the proficiency of the Scholars—the translation of the Scriptures and Liturgy of our Church into the vernacular tongue—and the effectiveness of the presses at Cotta and Nellore, is such as demands our grateful acknowledgments to Him "without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy." The means are steadily persevered in; and we cannot doubt but a blessing will follow.

The Committee cannot conclude their account of the Society's operations in India and Ceylon without noticing the Bishop's impression as to the progress of Christianity within his Diocese, as noticed in the following communication from Mr. Selkirk:—

During the Bishop's long journey through India, he has delivered four different Charges; two of which have been printed at this Press. The testimony which the Bishop here bears to the great advance that Christianity is making, not only among the Europeans who are scattered over different parts of the vast Continent of India, but also among the Native Population, is so much the more valuable, as it is given by one who speaks from accurate observation. Those who are conversant with the people from day to day may not be able to trace so distinctly the progress that is made in Christian Knowledge, as those who are only occasional visitants. Such a testimony, borne too by the head of the Christian Church in India, must be a source of great joy to the friends and supporters of Missions in our own country; as they will thus know that the cause for which they are exerting themselves is prospering; that their prayers are heard; and that the contributions which they have so liberally supplied are answering the end for which they have been given.

AUSTRALASIA MISSION.

NEW HOLLAND.

SINCE the last Anniversary, a second Clergyman, the Rev. W. Watson, has left this country for the purpose, if the Lord will, of entering on the intended Mission to New Holland. The Committee trust, that those who are engaged in this work of proclaiming the blessed Gospel of our Saviour among this most degraded portion of the human race will be specially remembered by their Brethren at home, in their intercessions at the Throne of Grace.

NEW ZEALAND.

If the gradual and steady progress of the New-Zealand Mission has, for some few years past, called forth songs of praise to Him who has protected His servants in the midst of dangers, and blessed their labours amidst surrounding difficulties, there is, in the experience of another year, abundant and increased occasion for gratitude and praise. If it be inquired, What is the evidence of the Divine Blessing on the Society's labours among the New Zealanders, the answer is, The Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ has found its way, by the teaching of the Holy Spirit, to the hearts of some: they feel their sinfulness; they have fled for refuge to the Saviour of sinners: and the proof of their having done so, is furnished in the striking change which has taken place in their character—in their veracity, their honesty, the subjugation of their temper, the tenderness of their conscience, their anxiety for the spiritual welfare of others; so that the description belongs to them,

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold all things are become new!

The Committee refer their friends to a brief account of the latter days of a Native Girl, contained in the August Record, for one satisfactory instance of the grace of God. There are also many living evidences—many walking in the Truth, and testifying that the Gospel of Jesus Christ has not been preached in vain.

Mr. Baker writes—

Those of our Natives who have dedicated themselves to God in Baptism are living a life consistent with their holy profession: they give full proof that a work of grace has been begun in their hearts.

Mr. Fairburn states—

Several of the Baptized speak to their countrymen with a holy boldness, and reprove sin with severity, even in those who are much their superiors in rank—a thing which, under any other circumstances, they dare not do.

One other fact ought not to pass unnoticed. Aparahama, a young man who had been baptized at Paihía, regularly visited a Native Chief, Ripi, during the illness of Ripi's son, and there is good reason to hope that both father and son have derived good from his instructions. Aparahama mentioned his hope concerning the father, in a Letter addressed to a lad, a slave belonging to Ripi, at present residing with Mr. Davis. Mr. Davis writes—

On the receipt of the Letter, the poor lad, who had been just baptized by the name of William, was much rejoiced. I said to him, "What makes you so happy?" "Oh!" said he, "should I not rejoice in the prospect there is of the salvation of my master's soul?"

But a blessed preparatory change has also taken place among the mass of this people. Their savage character is greatly softened; and they not only, in many instances, receive the Missionaries with readiness, but, of their own accord, send for the servants of God to give them instruction. On one occasion, when Mr. Yate went to Waimate to purchase some land for a new Settlement which has been formed with great advantage to the Mission, one of the Natives thus addressed his countrymen :—

Be gentle with the Missionaries, for they are gentle with you. Do not steal from them, for they do not steal from you: let them sit in peace upon the ground which they have bought; and let us listen to their advice, and come to their prayers.

Nor are they merely ready to receive those who visit them: they are anxious to persuade the Missionaries to come and settle among them. In reference to this, Mr. Fairburn writes—

The seeds of Divine Truth are spreading fast through this land. Many Natives, as far distant as 200 miles from the Southward, have had the opportunity of being both eye and ear-witnesses of the effect of the Gospel, on their countrymen, at this place; who, on their return home, have delighted their friends with their recital of the work of the Missionary—a term often used by the Natives. They are now calling aloud for Missionaries in almost every part of the Island.

While the visits to the Natives are made as opportunities offer, the important work of translating the Word of God is steadily proceeded in. The Liturgy has also been translated. On one occasion, some strange Natives coming into the Chapel at Paihía remarked—

Aye, those are not Native Prayers! If we did as those persons pray for us to do, we should be any other than what we are; and should cast away all our sins; and should believe in their God, and be made like them in all their doings.

An Examination of the Natives under instruction was held in December. Of this Mr. W. Williams writes :—

Their improvement since the last Examination was not so great as might be wished: but where a deficiency has been made manifest, we are better able to apply the remedy. The number present was, 179 Men and Boys, and 92 Girls; total 271.

The soldier of the Lord Jesus Christ will recognise in the writers of the following Letters, addressed to Mr. Yate by two of the Natives, those who are partakers in the same warfare as himself. One is from Unahanga, a young man living with Mr. Yate: it is as follows :—

My heart is desirous of being permitted to enter the Church of Jesus Christ. I wish altogether to turn to our Father which is in Heaven, and to cast away all the evil speaking of this world, and the evil acting. I am thinking inside me what can be the reason I have two hearts, which are always struggling one with the other. The one is a very good heart; the other altogether bad. I am wondering which will be thrown down and put undermost at last; perhaps the good one—perhaps the bad one. Oh, how they fight! Will you baptize me, or will you not? As I have two hearts, perhaps you will not, and perhaps you will.

The other is written by Pahùia, the wife of Wahanga:—

It is true, it is very true, that it is good to tell to Jehovah all that is in our heart, whether it is good or whether it is evil. My desire is, that my soul may be saved in the day of judgment. It will not be long before Jesus Christ appears to judge all mankind: and I also will be judged. It is right that I should be judged, and that I should be condemned; for my heart is very wicked, and will not do one good thing, not one, not one, not one, that Jesus Christ, nor God, nor the Holy Spirit say is good: if I am angered by them, it will be just. But will not the Son of God save me? You say He will; and I believe it. You say that, bad as it is, He will wash my soul in His blood, and make it good and clean: that is what I want. I want to be admitted into His Church, and to be made His Child, and to be taught His lessons out of His book; and to be taken care of by, and be done what with, done what with, done what with—Thou, O Lord Jesus, say what!

The following prayer was written by Ouru, who has, for some months past, endeavoured to make himself useful to his countrymen:—

Oh Jesus Christ, let thy Spirit come to us, to preserve our hearts, and to drive out the Evil Spirit! Soften our hearts by thy Holy Spirit. Cleanse our hearts by thy blood, Oh Jesus Christ, our Master! Thou didst purchase us, Thy Servants, Oh, Jesus Christ, our Lord, the Son of the Almighty and Everlasting God!

WEST-INDIES MISSION.

Notwithstanding the various difficulties arising out of the present state of the West Indies, in the way of all attempts to impart spiritual instruction to the Slave Population, the labours of the Society in Jamaica, Demerara, and Essequibo, have been accompanied by many encouraging circumstances.

The Jamaica Corresponding Committee, in speaking of one station, Cavaliers, make the following remarks on the evil of withholding the Lord's Day from the Slave:—

The Sabbath Congregations are not large. The Slaves being compelled, from want of time, to devote a portion of their Sabbath to the cultivation of their grounds, can only attend on the alternate Sabbaths. This is a crying evil: and your Committee ardently long for the time when it shall be done away, as it raises a high and strong barrier against the progress of Religion.

Where, however, the Sunday is open to the Slave, by his having week-day time allowed him for the cultivation of his provision-ground, and religious instruction is imparted to him, proofs are not wanting that a kindly impression has been produced on his heart; and that he is as capable of fine and generous sensibilities, as any who boast of their superiority over him. The Committee, in corroboration of this remark, call the attention of their friends to the following fact. One of Mr. Wildman's estates having got into bad condition through the illness of the Manager, the Negroes, when a new Manager arrived, offered, of their own accord, to give up their Saturdays for some weeks to come, in order to put the estate into good condition.

It ought further to be noticed, that during the late awful disturbances which have taken place in Jamaica, every thing has been tranquil on Mr. Wildman's properties, and none of the slaves have taken any part in the insurrection.

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

The Missionaries at the Red River express themselves much encouraged by the progress of the work in which they are engaged. Of this, some idea may be formed from the following remark of Mr. Cockran:—

It is a source of thankfulness to see a Christian Church in the Wilderness. We saw the first Church well filled: to that we added a second, and were equally successful in collecting an audience: and now we have added a third, to direct the weary wanderer to the place where he may obtain everlasting rest; and, what ought still to increase our thankfulness, we have a Congregation ready to enter into it.

The increase of his Congregation he thus notices: —

Three years ago, when I was in the constant habit of riding over the ground which is now the site of the New Church at the Grand Rapids, I was fifteen miles from home: and what were my prospects? I was going to preach to a Congregation which did not average 30. The whole of last winter my Congregation has averaged 200.

One of the Indian Boys, noticed in the last Report, having received an injury in falling off a horse when on a visit to his relatives, the effects of which he never recovered, died on Easter Monday. The following circumstances concerning him are mentioned by Mr. Jones: —

He once told me, he liked very much when I talked to him; and that being afflicted is a proof, not of displeasure, but of love on the part of God. Mr. Smith asked him, in my hearing, "Kootamey, do you pray?" He said, faintly, "Yes, Sir." Mr. Smith rejoined: "And what do you pray for?" With a look of deep concern, he answered, "I pray to God to pardon my sins and wash my soul." When his end was rapidly approaching, and the snares of death encompassed him round about, we were all much affected in finding that, though Reason had left her throne, his mind was still deliriously engaged in teaching his father about Jesus Christ."

Having thus taken a view of the Missions which the Society, under God, has been the means of establishing and maintaining in various parts of the Heathen World, the Committee would again remind the Members of the Society of the great disparity between its Income and Expenditure. It is obvious that some decisive measure must be adopted without delay. Either Christians must come forward promptly, vigorously, and steadily, as men in earnest about the work which they have undertaken, or the Society's operations must be materially abridged. Will the hundreds of Clergymen, or the thousands of private Christians, already associated in this great work, allow the latter course to be taken; and, while on the field of victory, triumphing over the Power of Darkness, sound a retreat? In this day of boasted improvement, large sums are profusely lavished for the increase of Knowledge, the advancement of Philosophy and Science, and, above all, for the gratification of Self. Is the professing Church of Christ alone to retrograde; and to stand forth as a solitary instance of one who, having put her hand to the plough, is now looking back? We lament over that spiritual insensibility which is one of the appalling features of the Heathen character: but do we overlook the startling fact, that insensibility to the fearful state of those whom the Word of Inspiration has described as having no hope, and without God in the world—insensibility to the glory of Him who died to redeem us—insensibility to the obligations of a palpable command, is to be found among the professed followers of Christ? Were this not the case, would a Society, whose object is to proclaim to a ruined world the remedy for all its guilt and misery, be straitened in its benevolent undertakings, by want of means? Societies, it is true, are multiplying—and we bless God that they are!—claims are daily made, which ought not to be disregarded: but, while some are straining every nerve, and giving to the cause of Christ a large proportion of their scanty resources, how disproportionate are the united contributions of the visible Church to its means, and how low an estimate has it formed of its exalted privileges and corresponding duties! Little discrimination is also exercised as to the relative importance of those objects for which the co-operation of Christians is asked. The same amount of contribution which is called for by a local and limited Charity is, from long-established usage, often deemed sufficient to meet the exigencies of a Society which embraces in its sympathies the destinies of 500 millions of immortal beings!

If the reason be sought, why this and other

Societies are impeded in their course by the want of pecuniary means, must it be necessarily attributed to the increasing number of Societies? May it not be true, that the avowed disciples of Christ do not yet feel that self-denial is the starting-point of Christian Charity? Is it not possible that the visible Church may have scarcely yet experienced the power of that self-sacrificing principle which brought the Son of God into our miserable world; and which, when duly felt, would prompt His followers even to lay down their lives for the Brethren? And does not the small number of those who bear the Christian name, when compared with the whole population of the globe in this 19th century of Christianity, testify against us, that we have been criminally indifferent to the solemn charge which yet lives in the Records of Eternal Truth: Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature?—And to whom can we look, but to the exalted Head of the Church, to awaken it to a due sense of its privileges and its responsibilities? Let His Servants offer up prayer for the promised gift of His Spirit, by whom the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified, and the prayer shall be answered: Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain; so the Lord shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain. Then would the faith and hope and love of the Church revive; the invitation to perishing sinners to look to the Saviour would be more widely circulated through the world; the voice of discord would cease, and the erection of the Spiritual Temple proceed; and the Church would largely experience the blessing prayed for by its Great Intercessor—That they all may be one; as Thou, Father, art in me, and I in Thee; that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent me!
